CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 2s. 6d.; and so on in proportion.
- III. All lots are sold subject to the right of the seller or his agent to bid, or else to impose a reserve.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10s. in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase-money, in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEBY & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. SOTHEBY & Co. will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed; but if, upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are received back within FOURTEEN DAYS after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.
- VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any worm-holes, stained or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates or blank leaves, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings, is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.
- VIII. No Imperfect Book will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.
- IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.
- X. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Messrs. SOTHEBY & CO. are prepared to execute bids, and in addition to advise intending purchasers as far as possible, if requested by them to do so, without making any charge for either service. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

 together 11 vol. original vellum folio
- * * VERY RARE. No sale of a complete set of first editions seems to have occurred in modern times. This set is complete except for the absence of parts 12 and 13 (not published till 1658 and 1677 respectively), and of the duplicate "Fift Part," containing the section on Ecclesiastical Law (see the next two lots).

- 31 COKE (SIR E.) Les Reports, another set, Parts I-VII only, all FIRST EDITIONS, with the blank leaves in Parts III and V and at the end of Part VI, wants the first leaf (blank) of Parts VI and VII, Parts I-IV in 1 vol. calf, Part V bound in two leaves of a manuscript choir-book on vellum, original stitching, Part VI original calf, Part VII original vellum; together 4 vol.
folio. 1600-8

* * The "Fift Part" is not that contained in the previous lot, which is absent here, but a distinct treatise, "Of the Kings Ecclesiastical Law." The titles are both dated 1605 and are exactly similar in wording and setting up, but in the quotation from Cicero the "T" of "Tull." comes below the "d" of "cedam" in this treatise and below the "c" of "facile" in the other. The bilingual preface which follows is identical, but the English and Latin are here printed in parallel columns, while in the other the English follows the Latin. The remainder is entirely different. Collation of this "Fift Part": [A]-L 6 in fours, [A] 1 and L 6 blank.

- 32 Coke (Sir E.) Les Reports, Parts IV and V (both sections) only, in 1 vol. FIRST EDITION of the first two, second edition (1606) of the section on Ecclesiastical Law, wants the first leaf (blank) of Part V, old calf, back torn
folio. 1604-5-6

* * The collation of the second "Fift Part" is: A, 6 ll., B-K in fours; A 2 signed B 1. The preface to the original "Fift Part" is not reprinted in this edition.

- 33 Coke (Sir E.) The First Part [The Second Part] of the Institutes of the Lawes of England, 2 vol. titles within woodcut borders, portrait by Payne in each vol. original calf (not uniform)
folio. 1629-42

- 34 Compleat Florist (The), frontispiece, engraved title and 100 plates, all coloured, calf gilt, worn
8vo. 1747

- 35 CONGREVE (WILLIAM) WORKS, 3 vol. portrait and plates, a few leaves damp-stained 8vo. Birmingham, John Baskerville, 1761

- 36 CONJUGIUM LANGUENS: or, The Natural, Civil, and Religious Mischiefs Arising from Conjugal Infidelity and Impunity. By Castamore [? Defoe] (A-D in fours, D 4 blank), two misprints on title corrected with a pen and a reference to Charles II on p. 19 struck out, original marbled wrappers, g. e. FINE COPY
4to. London: Printed by R. Roberts, 1700

* * APPARENTLY UNRECORDED.

- 37 Cook (James) A Voyage towards the South Pole and Round the World, 2 vol. FIRST EDITION, maps and plates, sprinkled calf
4to. 1777

- 38 Cordier (Mathurin) Colloquiorum scholasticorum libri quatuor (A-K 7 in eights), wants all after K 7, corners dog-eared, causing slight defects, unbound
8vo. Londini, Ex Tipographia Societatis Stationariorum. 1624
* * This edition is not recorded in the S. T. C. which records only editions of 1632 and 1633, each known by a single copy.
- 39 Cotgrave (Randle) A Dictionarie of the French and English Tongves, FIRST EDITION, title within woodcut border, original calf
folio. 1611
- 40 Cotton (Charles) The Wonders of the Peake, FIRST EDITION (A-F in eights, A 1 and F 7 and 8 blank), wants the third blank leaf, original sheepskin
8vo. 1681
- 41 Cowper (William) Heaven Opened, FIRST EXTANT EDITION (A, 4 ll.; B-Hh in eights; folding table before B 1, the table torn out and loose), original calf, gilt centre-pieces
4to. 1611
* * The S. T. C. records two copies only (B. M. and U. L. C.) of this, the earliest known edition. The book seems to have first appeared in 1609 and the third edition is dated 1613. The S. T. C. record seems to refer to Part I only; all three parts are present here.
- 42 Cowper (W.) The Anatomy of a Christian Man . . . The second Edition (A-Pp in fours, A 1 with signature only, Pp 4 blank; folding table with woodcut figure before B 1), small defects in table, original vellum, defective
* * The S. T. C. records no copy in America.

Another Property.

- 321 BLACKMORE (R. D.) AUTO. MANUSCRIPT OF HIS POEM CUCKOO SONG, 6 stanzas, 1 p. 4to, together with Blackmore's Auto. Correspondence from 26 Nov. 1878 to 2 Mar. 1898, with the Macquoids, 21 L. s. 3 A. L. s. to the Rev. C. J. Down, 2 A. L. s. to Professor Owen, an A. L. s. to Nicholas Snow, and another to Morris Collier, 28 in all, 71 pp. 8vo, with the addressed and stamped envelopes, green morocco. The Letters refer to his Novels: "Lorna Doone," "Springhaven," etc. and to his "first and probably last attempt at a hymn," upon the death "of a very dear relative":

Has not read any of Henry James' novels and doubts whether he would like his books. When he wrote "Lorna Doone" had not the least idea it would ever be heard of in Oare parish "for my books had hitherto obtained scarcely any notice." Had he known there was a Nicholas Snow in Oare "filling the position which you fill, I would never have used the name . . . It is too late now to help it, and I can only say that I am very sorry, and hope that now you know the truth, you will forgive such a trespass on your manor." Asks Macquoid if he has seen his little story "Crocker's Hole."

"I doubt if you have caught me napping in the cave. The "watery hubbub" was the splash of oars, not of waves" [this refers to a passage in "Lorna Doone."] Sends Down a copy of T(ommy) U(pmore). Has not seen Hardy's (Thomas Hardy, author of "Tess") new story yet. "The Mayor of Casterbridge." "Springhaven" cost me a lot of trouble." His garden sucks down every penny," "the growth of fruit for profit"! . . . I have tried for 30 years, and lost some £20,000, which might have saved me from the ink-bottle." Doesn't think he can write a short story. His right arm is likely to fail as his left did two years ago, cannot write without great pain. "the doctors can't make it out." Fears it will be impossible to reconcile his designs with Messrs. Lippincott's purpose, unless they take his story as a serial. It would be the length, of a 2 vol. novel and his price (for English and American serial use, and American full copyright) £1200 clear, and payable in four instalments "I do not think that my phiz is to be found any where save in L(orna) D(oone)—I did not want it there." "Sciatica has marked me for its own." etc.

 IN ALL PROBABILITY THE FINEST BLACKMORE SERIES OF LETTERS THAT HAS EVER BEEN OFFERED.

 The "Maid of Sker" was the first novel Blackmore ever attempted. It was thrown aside and finished later. "Blackmore has drawn few more realistic portraits than that of Davy Llewellyn in "The Maid of Sker," while the child Bardie was suggested to the novelist by a niece."—Stuart J. Reid, D.C.L.

- 323 BLACKMORE (R. D.) Clara Vaughan, revised edition, frontispiece, PRESENTATION COPY to Mrs. Alfred Hunt, the artist, with A. L. s. to the Author inserted, stating " . . . I think you have never seen my fundamentally Corsican Story,—'Clara Vaughan.' If so, I will get S. Low to send you a copy. It was my first work in prose; and of course is full of faults, as indeed the rest are," original cloth 8vo. Sampson Low, 1872

- 356 WORDSWORTH (Wm.) A. L. s. 1½ pp. 4to, Rydal Mount, Feby. 21st, 1832, to Sir Robert Ingles:
 . . . The Declaration has had a very good success among the scattered population of our extensive parish—We have no dissenting place of Worship among us, and had it not been that the minds of some are poisoned by a Radical whig and Dissenting Journal printed at Kendal, the Papers would have been signed by almost everyone.
- 357 DICKENS (Charles) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, 1 Devonshire Place, Friday Evening, Decr. 18th (n. y.), to Sir Robert Ingles:
 . . . If I had had the gift of second sight (or second hearing) I should have shortened the short distance between us, into nothing . . .
- 358 IRVING (Washington) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, New York, 1856, to Sir Robert Ingles, with others of Ruskin, Hallam, Rogers, Southey, etc. (13)
- 359 OUVRY (Jane) A. L. s. 4 pp. 8vo, to Miss Mitford (wrote "Our Village"), 14 Oct. n. y.:
 . . . Like Jean Paul Richter, I have a great horror of a real good ghost story . . . I have been reading Lamb's selections from the old Dramatists . . . Have you ever read through any of Chapman's plays? Some of the passages struck me as full of fire and that too of the highest kind, and some of Hoffman's terrible ghostly stories—there is no language like the German for expressing the mysterious and the horrible, etc.

- 360 [FRANKLIN (Dr. Benjamin)] Contemporary Manuscript of Dr. John Calder's Letter to Franklin, from which it was printed in "Illustrations of Literature," 2½ pp. 4to (undated):
Has read what Franklin sent for his perusal "... a convincing proof that you have expended much of your money, and ... your time ... on very serious and interesting subjects ... very bad and portentous of worse as all things appear to be, over all this earth, and as we of the British Dominions more especially grievously feel," etc.

- 377 STEVENSON (R. L.) Unpublished A. L. s. (twice), in full and initials, to Sidney Colvin, 2 pp. 8vo, Yacht Heron, Oban, n. d. (? 1876):

I don't like you much because I wanted a letter; however, I live in the blessed hope of one this afternoon. Meantime this is to intimate that I am well. Living mainly upon these thy mercies potted and put up in tins. I am better but I am not strong yet. The yacht was nearly ashore this morning owing to tripping her anchors in half a gale from the S.W. and I had to labour very hard in rain and wind for about an hour. I know for my own part, I should rather have been drowned than gone on hauling as I did; I was just sick at heart with fatigue: and am still. I like the life amazingly and feel that if I could live thus for three months, might have a chance of pulling through: however they are after me at home; and must go back I fancy. Do send me the news. For God his sake, send me the news, Colvin. Please give Madame a Cornhill and add it to my account.

- 378 PETERS (Rev. Rich), Founder, with Franklin, of Philadelphia College, A. Doc. s. 1 p. 8vo, 13 Dec. 1743, to the "proprietaries" of Pennsylvania, account of expenses for removing people off Juniata, receipted

- 379 CARLYLE (Thomas) A REMARKABLE SERIES OF UPWARDS OF EIGHTY-SEVEN A. L. s. 8vo and 4to sizes, written between May 1832 and March, 1869, to JOHN STUART MILL; this correspondence, of a most intimate nature, commences a month after Carlyle's return to Craigenputtock, from his first stay in London, he discusses with great frankness his own writings, and a vivid light is thrown upon his struggle for fame; many of his famous friends are mentioned, including Wordsworth, Emerson, Leigh Hunt, Mazzini and numerous others; several of the letters deal with Mill's unfortunate accident in burning

the manuscript of the first volume of the "French Revolution":

That I can never write that volume again is indubitable: singular enough, the whole Earth could not get it back. He declined Mill's generous offer of £200, refusing to accept more than £100 as Compensation.

 Ten of the letters are believed to be unpublished.

- 380 MILL (John Stuart) A VERY FINE SERIES OF TWENTY-FIVE A. L. S. 1832-1845, written to Thomas Carlyle; an intimate collection, containing interesting references to Goethe, Sir Walter Scott and others (25)

- 384 [AUSTEN (Jane)], Mrs Cassandra Austen, mother of Jane Austen, Eight A. L. s. (one imperfect) 1814 et seq, to her granddaughter Anna Lefroy, three of which contain references to Jane Austen. Writing from Shawton in 1814, she congratulates her upon her marriage and continues :

Your Aunt Jane says they ought to have been transmitted to you some time ago. I have just finished reading Waverley, which has afforded me more entertainment than any modern production (Aunt Jane's excepted) of the novel kind that I have read for a great while

In a further letter she writes that she had heard from Winchester that :

Jane has had a better night than she has had for many weeks, and has been comfortable all day, tho' still in a precarious state.

Speaking of the final illness and death she says :

Dear Jane is to be buried in the Cathedral I believe on Thursday.

AUSTEN (Francis William), brother of Jane, A. L. s. 1817 to B. Lefroy, announcing the last moments of his sister Jane; and seven A. L. s. from Jane's sister Cassandra Elizabeth to her niece Anna Lefroy, one contains a reference to a notice of Jane Austen works in "The Foreign and Colonial Review" :

Is it not remarkable that these books should have risen so much in celebrity after so many years.

An interesting collection. (16)

- 457 LE SAGE (ALAN RENÉ) THE HISTORY AND ADVENTURES OF GIL BLAS of Santillane, FIRST ENGLISH EDITION, 2 vol. original calf 12mo. Printed for Jacob Tonson, at Shakespear's-Head in the Strand, 1716

* * "Almost the entire issue of the First two editions seems to have disappeared, and for this reason the bibliography of the early English editions of 'Gil Blas' is somewhat baffling. The first two volumes were published by Jacob Tonson in 1716, but the only volume which we can trace is Vol. 1. which belonged to Mr. Purvis, of Stratford Place. That there was a steady demand for 'Gil Blas' may be assumed from the fact that a fourth edition was called for by 1738; the earliest in the British Museum is the third. The name of the first translator has not come down to us; possibly it was P. A. Motteux, who could only have translated the first two volumes, as he died in 1718."—The Times Literary Supplement, 16th June, 1921.

The collation is at follows:

(Vol. I) Engraved frontispiece, title and preliminaries, 6 ll. B to P in twelves, Q 8 ll. R 2 ll.

(Vol. II) Frontispiece (same as in vol. I), title and preliminaries, 4 ll. B to O in twelves (O 12 blank).

The earliest edition mentioned by Lowndes and the earliest edition in the British Museum is the third of 1737.

From the Library formed by Lady Skipwith in the 18th Century, with her ex-libris. The book also contains the autograph signature and date "Silina Skipwith, 13 Sept. 1787."

523 ALBUM AMICORUM OF SEBASTIAN VON STAMPS, of Vienna, ca. 192 ll. 12¾ in. by 10½ in. A series of Engravings of scriptural and mythological subjects by Philip Galle, D. V. Cornhaert, and others after Martin Heemskerck and Francis Floris, many skillfully coloured, interleaved as an album with inscriptions, arms, and FINE AND ELABORATE FULL-PAGE DRAWINGS, illuminated preface of 2 pp. finely written, with decorative borders, in gold and colours, margins somewhat soiled and some repaired, old red velvet (worn and rebacked), brass corner-pieces c. 1571-80

 In the preface the owner invites his friends each to chose an engraving, to have it illuminated, and to fill the blank sheet facing it with arms and inscription. In doing so they employed artists whose skill and taste have produced a book remarkable alike for execution and for character and variety of display. The finely painted arms are either framed within full and elaborate decorative borders or subordinated to drawings of considerable interest portraying the signatories or reflecting their tastes and careers. Among the more important are the following :—

- f. 29b. Bombardment of a fortress (the signatory being an ordnance officer).
- f. 37b. Battle against the Turks, burning castle in background.
- f. 39b. Coarsing hares on tillage bordering a park.
- f. 47b. A musical party by a country stream.
- f. 59b. Fine drawing of a party of gallants at table with a lady (apparently a vintage celebration); a fool in the background.
- f. 86b. Two knights meeting in the lists. The corresponding engraving is one of the prodigal son; and the signatory (represented as the successful competitor) seems to emphasize, with some pride, a riotous youth, by wearing a pack of cards as a crest and covering the housings of his horse with further playing-cards surrounding a sketch of the prodigal. It is noticeable that neither rider wears any protection for the legs below the knee.
- f. 138b. A drinking party.
- f. 140b. Interesting drawing of the enrolment of men-at-arms before a richly draped table in a landscape
- f. 146b. An attractive summer landscape, with figures hunting, fishing and bathing.
- f. 161b. Hunting the stag.
- f. 182b. Hawking: a landscape full of figures, a party seated at an elaborate lunch by a wood in the background.

From the Rosenheim Collection. Mr. Rosenheim considered this one of the most important specimens he had met with, on account of its size (which is unusual if not unique for an Album Amicorum), its interleaved sets of rare engravings, and its beautiful drawings; he reproduced two of the latter in colours.

 (b) Two A. L. s. of Frau Wagner, the Composer's wife.
 (c) Ten A. L. s. of Catulle Mendès, the Poet and Dramatist, 13 pp. 8vo, relating to Wagner's "Rheingold."
 (d) Seven A. L. s. of M. Baligand, 15 pp. 8vo and 12mo, entirely relating to Wagner, his writings and Operas, and his death, 33 items in all, inlaid to small folio and bound in green morocco

Wagner's first letter, 10 June 1843, from Dresden, is to Ludwig Spohr, in reply to the latter's about the success of the "Flying Dutchman" at Cassel on 5 June. "My highly esteemed Master," . . . Considering its (the Opera) extraordinarily great difficulties I could hope for very little result on any stage . . . if a man was not at the head of it . . . especially energetic and capable . . . That you, my beloved Master, possess these capabilities above everyone else, I know." "But now I can see clearly that my lucky star is in the ascendant since I have won the sympathy of a man from whom an indulgent remark would have been an honour. To see him, himself, take up my cause in such a decided manner is such a happiness to me as distinguishes me above all others and fills me for the first time with a feeling of pride that no applause from the public has ever yet aroused in me . . . I must take care not to become vain and get my head turned. May God help me to remain honourable," etc.

This long and important Letter is subscribed: "For ever and ever with deepest respect, Your devoted pupil," etc.:

On 3 Feb. 1853 Wagner writes to R. Schoneck—"the talented young conductor"—about the pictures of the costumes (for Tannhauser) and mentions Franz Wallner (a touring operatic manager) . . . They had both already produced Tannhauser at Freiburg in Breisgau.

From Venice, 20 Dec. 1858, Wagner blames F. Brendel for not sending his "Musical Journal." Will stay in Venice a little longer where he is in great seclusion and has been prevented from working through illness. "However, Hartels shall soon receive the second act of "Tristan" and at all events, in the late summer of next year, I intend producing "Tristan and Isolde"—Where? It is still difficult to tell exactly. If by then, I shall not be able to come to Germany, I intend producing the Opera at the Court Theatre at Strasburg," etc.

From Paris, 1 July, 1861, Wagner writes to Franz Abt about the performing rights of Tannhäuser.

To an unnamed correspondent, but presumably the Editor of the Illustrierte Zeitung, Wagner writes from Vienna, 16 Jan. 1863,

about the slow progress of the printing of his poem. Speaks of the success of his concerts abroad, and adds :

"The popularity which has rapidly been won through my performances of Fragments from the 'Niebelungen' is extraordinary, and I believe that fortunately the interest will be so permanent that our publication will find a very large sale here," etc.

On 1 Feb. 1865, Wagner writes from Munich, to his Paris publisher Flaxland, asking for his March (for Tannhäuser) as quickly as possible, and in another letter to him the composer encloses the orchestral parts, and refers to doubling the parts for string instruments, for which purpose it should be sent to M. Arban, etc.

From Munich, 16 April 1868, the composer writes to his publisher J. J. Weber, offering a new manuscript for immediate publication, to be issued in the same form as his "Music of the Future." He is also ready to send him a revision of his "Opera and Drama" for a second edition, with a new preface. Wagner asks for 30 Louis d'or for both these—the new manuscript and the second edition—immediately, etc.

Another letter relating to the "Ring" is that of 31 May 1868, from Munich, to J. J. Weber. "I have just received an account of expenses incurred on my behalf at the time of my publication of the "Ring of the Niebelungen." Assumes "that you despair of ever selling as many copies as would be necessary. I therefore request you not to trouble about the second edition of 'Opera and Drama.'" Wagner asks for the manuscript of that work back. Of "German Art and politics," which his correspondent has already printed, the composer asks for 25 copies and does "not ask for a honorarium" for the work.

The final letter from Bologna, 27 Sept. 1876, to an unnamed friend refers to his "Flying Dutchman."

The contract for the publication of the "Ring," 2 pp. folio, Leipzig and Dresden, 1 Dec. 1862, gives the terms upon which Weber is to hold the right of publication and is signed by both Wagner and Weber, and sealed with their seals.

The Catulle Mendès letters refers to his articles on Wagner's "Rheingold," "Tristan und Isolde," etc.

The letters of Baligand to Michel Baronnet refer to Parsifal, Götterdämmerung. "Wagner who has passed Munich this morning for Palermo has finished the instrumentation of the second act and is a little indisposed." Thanks his correspondent for the translation of Wagner's "Art and Religion." He would send some fragments of Parsifal, but dare not venture because of a mysterious unbelievable order of the Master, so 'tis said. Indeed even here (in Munich) the artists who wish to study their roles with me only, are obliged to shew their parts to nobody but Levi or Fischer. "Wagner a une peur atroce devant un plagiat, devant les arrangements qui paraîtront comme poussent les champignons et devant les extraits qui seront exécutés dans les concerts."

Very many thanks for sending me an early copy of your most interesting article on my beloved Louis. I have read it with great pleasure and think you have drawn a delightful picture of him. It has recalled many very pleasant memories to me . . . I could make several little alterations as to matters of fact but nothing of very great importance till Mr. Colvin's larger portrait comes. My recollection of the first line to Mr. Stockton is 'If thee, my Stockton, I forget' and I think that is decidedly better than yours. . . .

DICKENS (CHARLES) A VERY FINE SERIES OF A. L. S. ADDRESSED TO HIS SISTER-IN-LAW GEORGINA HOGARTH AND OTHERS.

- 767 A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Tavistock House, 7th August, 1857, to "My dear Georgy":

I have had an excellent night (a little opiate in the medicine), and have had no return whatever of the distress of yesterday morning. Come to me at the Garrick, in a cab, at $\frac{1}{2}$ past 8.

Ever affectionately

and A. L. (signature cut away) $\frac{1}{2}$ p. 8vo, saying he will not be home that night (2)

- 768 A. L. s. "C. D." 1 p. 8vo, Monday, 10th May, 1858, to "My dear Georgy":

. . . Did you arrange with John to take with you, such plate as you and he may agree to be necessary. . . He has brought me the wrong flesh-brush. Will you exchange it for mine—which is much harder. . .

- 769 A. L. s. "C. D." 1 p. 8vo, Tavistock House, 18th August, 1858, to "My dearest Georgy," saying he is recovering from a cold. . . :

I began to recover my voice, and I think I sang half the Irish Melodies to myself as I walked about, to test it. I got home at $\frac{1}{2}$ past 10, and mustard-poulticed and Barley-watered myself tremendously. Love to the dear Girls and to all

- 770 A VERY FINE A. L. s. 6 pp. 8vo, Morrison's Hotel, Dublin, 29th August, 1858, to "My dearest Georgy," describing the great success his Readings have met with in Dublin and Belfast. . . :

I have never seen Men go in to cry so undisguisedly as they did at that reading yesterday afternoon. They made no attempt whatever to hide it, and certainly cried more than the women. As to the Boots at night—and Mrs. Gamp too, it was just one roar with me and them. For they made me laugh so that sometimes I could not compose my face to go on

- 771 A VERY FINE A. L. s. "C. D." 6 pp. 8vo, Royal Hotel, Scarborough Sept. 11, 1858, to the same, giving accounts of his Readings in York and Harrogate; with another A. L. (with signature cut away) (2)
- 772 A. L. s. "C. D." 3 pp. 8vo, King's Head, Sheffield, Sept. 17th, 1858, to the same . . . :
 . . . Halifax was too small for us. I never saw such an audience though. They were really worth reading to for nothing—though I didn't do exactly that . . . The run upon tickets here is so immense, that Arthur is obliged to get great bills out signifying that no more can be sold . . .
- 773 A. L. s. 4 pp. 8vo, Wolverhampton, Wednesday, 3rd Nov. 1858, to the same :
 Little Leamington came out in the most amazing manner yesterday. We took £130 and turned away hundreds upon hundreds of people. . .
- 774 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 16th May, 1859, to "My dear Georgy" :
 I have bought Household Words and its stock, for £3,550. The stock is worth, about £1,600; leaving the price at about—at the very most—£2,000; consequently, as I only, in reality, pay a fourth, I have bought it for £500.
 Tomorrow morning we advertise in all the papers "that the last No. of Household Words will be published on the 28th of May; after which time that publication will be merged with All the Year Round."
 Joyce was the bidder for the Whitefriars Gang. . . We had also arranged . . . that Chapman should bid against them up to a certain point, the consequence of which feint, was, that Nobody could make out what Arthur was bidding for at all, or why he was there.
 with another A. L., with signature cut away (2)
- 775 A. L. s. "C. D." 1 p. 8vo, Norwich, Royal Hotel, 12th Octr. 1859, to the same :
 Only a word. I was delighted to get your letter just now. Composing myself for the Reading. Immense Success last night: everything full of promise for tonight.
with envelope
- 776 A. L. s. "C. D." 1 p. 8vo, Eagle Hotel, Cambridge, 17th Oct. 1857, to the same :
 . . . I don't very much like the look of the place. It seems what Dean would call "Dirtily" dull.
- 777 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp. 8vo, Nottingham, 1st Oct. 1859, to the same :
 . . . Cambridge beyond everything. Nothing could be finer or better. Bradford very good indeed. A fine room here tonight, but tomorrow morning's idea (Arthur's) seeming all wrong, I have arranged that it shall not come off.
with envelope

- 778 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, New Year's Day, 1860, to the same :

. . . Wills having Miss Coutts's box. I went to Drury Lane again last night—read after coming home, and sending loving New Years to Gad's Hill—and did not get to bed until half past one!

Disclose to Mamie also to the Boys and Miss Crawford . . .

- 779 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 1st August, 1860, to the same, concerning a house at Haverstock Hill

- 780 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp. 8vo, Tuesday Evening (dining here with Wills), Twenty-first August, 1860, to the same :

The Tavistock House Deed is signed, and the money paid! We have a fortnight to clear out in. . .

- 781 A. L. s. "C. D." 1 p. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 31st Oct. 1860, to the same :

The enclosed letters are in Arthur Smith's "Department." In the envelope drawer—on the right hand of my writing table raised-top, immediately under the fighting frogs and the little bronze Trollope, You will find a printed envelope addressed to the said Arthur Smith. Will you put these letters in it—stamp it—and post it to him. . .

- 782 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp 8vo, Bideford, 1st November, 1860, to the same, complaining of a "Beastly hotel" :

We had stinking fish for dinner, and have been able to drink nothing—though we have ordered wine, beer, and brandy and water. There is nothing in the hotel but Two tarts and a pair of snuffers. The landlady is playing cribbage with the landlord in the next room (behind a thin partition) and they seem quite comfortable.

- 783 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 14th Nov. 1860, to the same :

. . . Celeste appears to have made a real success with her new piece. There seems to have been a genuine excitement in the house on the first night. She was here this morning, on great hope, also, gave me marvelous accounts of an Irishman she has engaged from Dublin, where he has made a tremendous hit.

Wilkie brought the beginning of his part of the Xmas No. to dinner yesterday. . .

- 784 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 28th Nov. 1860, to the same :

. . . Wilkie has shot ahead today, and we have made a great advance. But we still have the "Wind up" to do tomorrow, and also the final putting of it together and seeing that there is not a line too much. . . Mrs. Gaskell being much too long for the purpose, I have put Charley Collins into the Xmas No. I have made him the first story too. . .

with another A. L. s., with a few lines cut away (2)

- 785 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 28th Dec. 1860, to the same :

. . . Now understand, both you and Mary, that there is not the least occasion to be anxious about me. I have no kind of pain—scarcely an uneasiness—but I am not rid of the disagreeables that affected me in that hot summer, and they must be put right. I have delivered myself over to be physicked, and that is the long and short of it.

If you have the least doubt about me, I am open to inspection . . . if I wanted nursing, I should say so, and should resort to you sooner than to anybody on earth. . . .

- 786 A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 2 Jany., 1861, to the same :

. . . Wilkie and I (secluded in a cab, as if I were a Crimean Invalid,—I have a Brougham today) went to the Duckley's last night. They do the most preposterous things, in the way of violin solos, deeply sentimental songs and Lucrezia Borgia music, sung by a majestic female in black velvet and Jewels, with a blackened face! all that part of it is intolerably bad. . . .

- 787 A. L. s. 1 p. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 5th Jan., 1861, to the same :

. . . Enclosed for the Tax collector. I have not the heart to open the enclosed. Will you make me out a list of that affectionate contribution towards my ruin.

- 788 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 7 Jan., 1861, to the same, concerning a visit to the theatre for which he had taken seats

- 789 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 9th Jan., 1861, to the same :

"We" are in the full swing of stopping managers from playing a Message from the Sea. I privately doubt the strength of our position in the Court of Chancery, if we try it; but it is worth while. . .

with another of the same date, referring to an invitation (2)

- 790 A. L. s. "C. D." 1 p. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 17 Jan., 1861, to the same :

When I was calculating yesterday about coming down, I was under an unaccountable impression that there was a day less in the week than there is. It seems to me that I cannot do better than come down at once and get my Number done at Gad's . . . I think the best thing I can do, will be to take possession of the best spare room, if you will have its fire lighted and will put my odds and ends there . . .

with envelope

- 791 A. L. s. "C. D." 1 p. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 31 Jan., 1861, to the same, asking that a bottle or two of whiskey be packed for him

- 792 A. L. s. "C. D." 3 pp. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 2nd Feby., 1861, to the same :
 You are quite right in your final discovery and decision touching Boswell I will be at Hanover Terrace to receive you. A van will come to London Bridge—not a little cart—and will call here on its way up, to take in the things that are to come from here. Surely I put the key of the cupboard where Kate's silver is, in the cupboard itself. I seem to have a perfect remembrance thereof, and it is on my bunch. . . .
- 793 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp. 8vo, Lord Warden Hotel, Dover, 26 May, 1861, to the same :
 I send enclosed cheque for £10-3-0. That is to say House £5, Waiters £4-10-0, Coal Bill £1-3-0. I hope I am still better. My face aches at times, but very little. I work well, walk well, eat and drink well, and sleep well. . . .
- 794 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 17th July, 1861, to the same :
 I think you had better bring me up a white dress shirt, or I may run aground.
 I will give you a pound when Duff Gordon marries Marguerite.
 I am sick to death of the faintest reference to Chauneys "party". . . .
- 795 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 31 July, 1861, to the same :
 I send this down, to ask you to give Frank to bring here to me—and to give him tomorrow morning at breakfast, so that he may not forget it—my small umbrella with the ivory handle. . . .
 Edmund Yates asks if he could come down on Friday in next week? Can he?
- 796 A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 19th Sept., 1861, to the same :
 I thought it, on consideration, best to order 3 belts and 3 red flannel waistcoats. There is some mistake about the winter trousers. They are all at Gad's Hill. Nothing here but boots. . . .
- 797 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 9th Oct., 1861, to the same, concerning the death of Mr. Henry Austin, his brother-in-law and friend
- 798 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp. 8vo, Office of Household Words, July 29, 1857, to the same :
 . . . asking her to send a collection of Cuttings, Pamphlets and Pictures of Newgate to Wilkie Collins, at 2 Harley Place, New Road.
- 799 A. L. s. "C. D." 1 p. 8vo, Household Words, 9th May, 1856, to the same :
 . . . The party came off here, last night, with great success. Cold collation of pigeon pie, collared red partridge, ham, roast fowls, and lobster salads. One hot dish, consisting of a most immense heap of asparagus. Considerable quantities of Punch were disposed of, and Charley and I got home at ½ past 2.
 He goes on to mention Stanfield, Forster and Maclise. Two holes—neatly repaired—affect two or three words.

- 800 A. L. s. "C. D." 4 pp. 8vo, Tavistock House, May 5th, 1856, to the same, describing a visit to the Dover Theatre, where a benefit performance for Mrs. Green was being given:

I made out Four and Ninepence in the House when I went in. We may have warmed up in the course of the evening to twelve shillings. . . . It was a most forlorn business, and I should have contributed a Sovereign to the Treasury if I had known her. I walked to Deal and back that day, and on the previous day walked over the Downs towards Canterbury. . . .

a long and very entertaining letter

- 801 A. L. s. "C. D." 2½ pp. 8vo, Household Words, 14th March, 1856, to the same:

Describing a visit to the Olympic Theatre with Webster, Lemon and Stanfield, and goes on to refer to the purchase of Gads' Hill. . . .

This day I have paid the purchase money for Gad's Hill Place: After drawing the cheque, I turned round to give it to Wills (£1,790), and said "Now isn't it an extraordinary thing—look at the day—Friday! I have been nearly drawing it half a dozen times when the lawyers have not been ready, and here it comes round upon a Friday as a matter of course. . . ."

- 802 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. 8vo, H. W. Office, 11 March, 1856, to the same:

. . . Tell Catherine that I have the most prodigious, overwhelming, crushing, astonishing, blinding, deafening, pulverising, scarifying secret of which Forster is the hero, imaginable by the united efforts of the whole British population. It is a thing of that kind, that after I knew it (from himself) this morning, I lay down flat, as if an engine and Tender had fallen upon me. . . .

- 803 A. L. s. "C. D." 2½ pp. 8vo, Household Words, 8th Feb., 1856, to the same, mentioning "Little Dorrit":

. . . I have rescued Mark from a state of the deepest depression, and that the first No. of Little Dorrit has gone to 40,000, and the others are fast following. . . .

- 804 A. L. s. "C. D." 4 pp. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 22 July, 1854, to the same, concerning a book of Wilkie Collins:

Neither you nor Catherine did justice to Collin's book. I think it far away the cleverest Novel I have ever seen written by a new hand. It is much beyond Mrs. Gaskell, and is in some respects masterly. Valentine Blyth is as original and as well done as anything can be. The scene where he shews his pictures, is full of admirable humour. Nor do I recognize much imitation of myself. . . .

with a short Letter to the same, dated Feb., 1856 (2)

- 805 A. L. s. "C. D." 3½ pp. 8vo, Hotel de la Ville, Milan, 25 Oct., 1852, to the same:

Making great fun of the moustaches of Wilkie Collins, and Augustus Egg, and describing their adventures in Switzerland and Italy.

with envelope

- 806 A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Office of Household Words, 31st August, 1850, to the same :

I write these hasty &c. &c. to say Forster is not coming. Consequently if Fred is (which I suppose you know) he may have the Pump Room.

- 807 A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 16 August, 1859, to Wilkie Collins, mentioning "A Tale of Two Cities" :

I should have written to you this last week from Gad's Hill, but that I was tempted out on the Medway for two summer days (rowed 20 miles at a stretch, on one of them), and so slid back in the Tale of Two Cities, and have since been doggedly at it. . . . I have not the slightest doubt that The Woman in White is the name of names, and the very title of very titles. . . .

- 808 A. L. s. 1½ pp. 8vo, Gad's Hill Place, 8 Oct., 1866, to A. Roche, Esq. :

with envelope

- 809 DICKENS (C.) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo (in French), Tavistock House, Jeudi, Mars 25, 1858, to Mons. Bamps of Brussels, disclaiming all knowledge of a M. Louis Dickens, with envelope—WELLINGTON (Duke of) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Paris, June, 1818 ; and BEACONSFIELD (Earl) A. L. s. "D" (3)

- 810 DICKENS (C.) A. L. s. 1½ pp. 8vo, Gad's Hill Place, 28 Oct. 1860, to Mrs. Lehman framed and glazed

Unfortunately I cannot come on Monday, as the looming of my Cornish Giants in the distance obliges me to stick to work. . . .

You have heard of Mary's horse having gone down with her? The undersigned reverend Parent wishes to know, what next. . .

- 811 DICKENS (C.) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Gad's Hill Place, 5th June, 1864, to Tom Taylor, thanking him for obtaining a grant of £60 a year to Mrs. Austen

- 812 TROLLOPE (Anthony) A. L. s. 2½ pp. 8vo, 1874, to Tom Taylor, concerning a fund that had been collected for a Mrs. Brooks

- 814 HARDY (Thomas) A. l. s. 2 pp. 8vo, West End Cottage, Swanage, Oct. 24th, 1875, to Mr. Macquoid:
 . . . Give my kind regards to Mrs. Macquoid. I think her industry must be tremendous, to produce novels as she does, & throw in a large book of travels between each as a mere nothing. . . .
 with others of R. D. Blackmore, M. O. W. Oliphant, Jean Ingelow, etc. (12)
- 815 HARDY (T.) Two Auto. Postcards (unsigned), 1908, to A. M. Broadley; with two photographs of "Oxwell Hall" of the Trumpet Major
- 816 SHAW (G. Bernard) Augustus does his bit, Rough Proof, unpublished, 8vo, wrappers (1917); with Auto. Note on blank by the author:
 This is not really a "rough proof" of Augustus. It is a rehearsal copy. The play was performed on the 21st January 1917 and not published until 1919. Printed copies were needed for the preparation of the the performance; and this is one of them.
- 817 EVERETT (Edward), 1794-1865, American Orator and Diplomatist, A. L. s. 4 pp. 4to, to Horatio Greenough the American sculptor, on the colossal statue of Washington, Feb. 26, 1844—GODWIN (Wm.) A. L. s. to George Bartley, 1 p. 4to:
 I beg to congratulate both the theatre and myself upon the success of the piece that night. I consider this as a real advantage to my poor widowed daughter (Lady Shelley) &c.
 COBDEN (R.) A. L. s. 3 pp. 1860, Cardinal Gonsalvi, Henry Hallam, Sir Wm. Beechey (6)
- 818 AINSWORTH (W. H.) A. L. s. 1 p. 1878—CORELLI (Marie) 2 pp. 1897—MONTAGU (Mrs. Elizabeth) A. L. s. initials, to Dr. Monsey, on the death of George II, 4 pp. 4to (circa 1760); and others by G. A. Sala, Samuel Rogers, Thomas Moore, Andrew Lang, L. E. Landon, G. P. R. James, Thomas Campbell (MS. Poem), and another (13)

The Property of Miss Elsie Druce,

NIECE OF THE LATE J. W. CROSS, HUSBAND AND BIOGRAPHER OF
"GEORGE ELIOT."

- 825 ELIOT (George) A REMARKABLE COLLECTION OF UPWARDS OF SIX HUNDRED A. L. s., mostly addressed to Mr. and Mrs. Bray, and dating from 1842 to 1877, they are signed variously "Mary Ann," "Marian," "Pollian," "M. E. Lewes," etc.; a most intimate correspondence, containing numerous references to her literary labours and to the works of contemporary writers during thirty-five years; use was made of these letters in Mr. Cross's Biography, but none has been printed in extenso; the largest and most important collection of George Eliot's letters extant
- 826 ELIOT (G.) Auto. MS. 2 pp. 4to "Letters from a Town Mouse to a Country Mouse"; with an Extract from Giovanni Villani, 1 p. 4to (2)
- 827 ELIOT (G.) A Series of Seven A. L. s., to her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Evans of Winkworth, written from Griff, 1839-40:
I cannot give you a hopeful account of my spiritual state, for of late I have been much exposed to temptation from contact with wordly persons, and that traitor within the love of human praise has opened the door to too many compliances with what is likely to make me less hungry for heavenly blessings, by enabling me to derive a temporary enjoyment from what is merely earthly. I have great need of your prayers and I fear not that I shall be denied them. . . (7)
- 828 ELIOT (G.) Letters addressed to her from Benjamin Jowett, J. A. Froude, J. L. Stoddard, Sir James Paget, Chas. Bray, Sir R. F. Burton, James Hutton, etc., in two portfolios; with Two Albums of Newspaper Cuttings relating to George Eliot (4)

- 829 ROSSETTI (Dante Gabriel) A. L. s. 4 pp. 8vo, 16, Cheyne Walk, 18 Feb., 1870, to George Eliot, saying he is sending her two sonnets; with other Letters addressed to George Eliot from Oscar Browning, Anthony Trollope (thanking her for "Felix Holt"), G. F. Watts, B. Jowett, Earl Lytton, etc. (21)
- 830 STOWE (Harriet Beecher) Four fine A. L. s. 42 pp. 8vo, Hertford, 1869, to George Eliot, mentioning her books "Silas Marner," "Mill on the Floss" and "Adam Bede"; with Two A. L. s. from Mr. Stowe to George Eliot (5)
- 831 HARRISON (Frederic) A Series of Sixteen A. L. s., to George Eliot, concerning legal questions in "Felix Holt" and "Adam Bede" (16)
- 832 CARLYLE (Jane W.) A very fine A. L. s. 7 pp. 8vo, 5, Cheyne Row, 21st Jan., 1858, to George Eliot, thanking her for "Scenes of Clerical Life," Mrs. Carlyle desires to meet the author, whom she thinks to be a man
- 833 BANCROFT (George) A. L. s. 2 pp. 4to, American Embassy, Berlin, Oct., 1873, to George Eliot, saying that everyone in Berlin was reading "Middlemarch"
- 834 DICKENS (Charles) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Gad's Hill Place, 21 March, 1870, to G. H. Lewes:
On Sunday I hope to attend service at the Priory. I like the healthy look of the walking expedition and the longer rest abroad. May you thoroughly enjoy both. With kind regards to Mrs. Lewes. . .
- 835 CHAPMAN (John) A. L. s. 3 pp. 8vo, 8, King William St., 1857, to George Eliot, concerning remuneration for her contributions to the Westminster Review—FROUDE (J. A.) Two A. L. s. to George Eliot, desiring to know the identity of the author of "Scenes of Clerical Life"—BLACKWOOD (John) A. L. s. to George Eliot, mentioning her books—TOURGUENEFF (I. S.) A. L. s. (5)
- 836 GASKELL (Mrs. E. C.) A. L. s. 5 pp. 8vo, Whitby, Nov. 10th, n. y., to George Eliot, praising her "Scenes from Clerical Life" and "Adam Bede"

regularity prevailed, so that with us days, weeks and months passed quickly away, and we were happy in each others society, being bound together by the strongest ties of friendship and affection.

It would occupy too much space to relate the many incidents that occurred during my long Pupilage at Easterton, but one circumstance which gave us all pleasure must not be omitted, and that was a visit from our beloved friend and Pastor, who always welcomed us with a smile, and had a kind encouraging word ^{for} all; indeed he took a most lively interest in all our proceedings, and it was a source of comfort to him, when he received tidings of our good report, for he

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 2s. 6d.; and so on in proportion.
- III. All lots are sold subject to the right of the seller or his agent to bid, or else to impose a reserve.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10s. in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase-money, in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed; but if, upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are received back within FOURTEEN DAYS after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.
- VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any worm-holes, stained or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates or blank leaves, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings, is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.
- VIII. No Imperfect Book will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.
- IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.
- X. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Messrs. SOTHEY & CO. are prepared to execute bids, and in addition to advise intending purchasers as far as possible, if requested by them to do so, without making any charge for either service. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

- * * VERY RARE. No sale of a complete set of first editions seems to have occurred in modern times. This set is complete except for the absence of parts 12 and 13 (not published till 1658 and 1677 respectively), and of the duplicate "Fift Part," containing the section on Ecclesiastical Law (see the next two lots).

- 31 COKE (SIR E.) Les Reports, another set, Parts I-VII only, all FIRST EDITIONS, with the blank leaves in Parts III and V and at the end of Part VI, wants the first leaf (blank) of Parts VI and VII, Parts I-IV in 1 vol. calf, Part V bound in two leaves of a manuscript choir-book on vellum, original stitching, Part VI original calf, Part VII original vellum; together 4 vol.

folio. 1600-8

. The "Fift Part" is not that contained in the previous lot, which is absent here, but a distinct treatise, "Of the Kings Ecclesiastical Law." The titles are both dated 1605 and are exactly similar in wording and setting up, but in the quotation from Cicero the "T" of "Tull." comes below the "d" of "cedam" in this treatise and below the "c" of "facile" in the other. The bilingual preface which follows is identical, but the English and Latin are here printed in parallel columns, while in the other the English follows the Latin. The remainder is entirely different. Collation of this "Fift Part": [A]-L 6 in fours, [A] 1 and L 6 blank.

- 32 Coke (Sir E.) Les Reports, Parts IV and V (both sections) only, in 1 vol. FIRST EDITION of the first two, second edition (1606) of the section on Ecclesiastical Law, wants the first leaf (blank) of Part V, old calf, back torn

folio. 1604-5-6

. The collation of the second "Fift Part" is: A, 6 ll., B-K in fours; A 2 signed B 1. The preface to the original "Fift Part" is not reprinted in this edition.

- 320 BELVOIR FOXHOUNDS. A VERY FINE SERIES OF HUNTING DIARIES, recording the runs of this famous pack from 1870 to 1896, made by Frank Gillard, huntsman to the pack, extending to 20 vols. 19 of which are folio and one 4to size

 This complete record of every run of this celebrated pack over such a long period makes it a series of great interest and importance.

Another Property.

- 321 BLACKMORE (R. D.) AUTO. MANUSCRIPT OF HIS POEM CUCKOO SONG, 6 stanzas, 1 p. 4to, together with Blackmore's Auto. Correspondence from 26 Nov. 1878 to 2 Mar. 1898, with the Macquoids, 21 L. s. 3 A. L. s. to the Rev. C. J. Down, 2 A. L. s. to Professor Owen, an A. L. s. to Nicholas Snow, and another to Morris Coller, 28 in all, 71 pp. 8vo, with the addressed and stamped envelopes, green morocco. The Letters refer to his Novels: "Lorna Doone," "Springhaven," etc. and to his "first and probably last attempt at a hymn," upon the death "of a very dear relative":

Has not read any of Henry James' novels and doubts whether he would like his books. When he wrote "Lorna Doone" had not the least idea it would ever be heard of in Oare parish "for my books had hitherto obtained scarcely any notice." Had he known there was a Nicholas Snow in Oare "filling the position which you fill, I would never have used the name . . . It is too late now to help it, and I can only say that I am very sorry, and hope that now you know the truth, you will forgive such a trespass on your manor." Asks Macquoid if he has seen his little story "Crocker's Hole."

"I doubt if you have caught me napping in the cave. The "watery hubbub" was the splash of oars, not of waves" [this refers to a passage in "Lorna Doone."] Sends Down a copy of T(ommy) U(pmore). Has not seen Hardy's (Thomas Hardy, author of "Tess") new story yet. "The Mayor of Casterbridge." "Springhaven" cost me a lot of trouble." His garden sucks down every penny," "the growth of fruit for profit"! . . . I have tried for 30 years, and lost some £20,000, which might have saved me from the ink-bottle." Doesn't think he can write a short story. His right arm is likely to fail as his left did two years ago, cannot write without great pain. "the doctors can't make it out." Fears it will be impossible to reconcile his designs with Messrs. Lippincott's purpose, unless they take his story as a serial. It would be the length, of a 2 vol. novel and his price (for English and American serial use, and American full copyright) £1200 clear, and payable in four instalments "I do not think that my phiz is to be found any where save in L(orna) D(oone)—I did not want it there." "Sciatica has marked me for its own." etc.

 IN ALL PROBABILITY THE FINEST BLACKMORE SERIES OF LETTERS THAT HAS EVER BEEN OFFERED.

322. BLACKMORE (R. D.) AUTO. MANUSCRIPT OF HIS NOVEL "THE MAID OF SKER," 264 pp. 4to, WITH MANY CORRECTIONS BY THE AUTHOR, and differing very considerably from the work as printed. APPARENTLY THE ONLY MANUSCRIPT OF ANY OF THIS AUTHOR'S NOVELS THAT HAS BEEN SOLD AT AUCTION, green morocco

 The "Maid of Sker" was the first novel Blackmore ever attempted. It was thrown aside and finished later. "Blackmore has drawn few more realistic portraits than that of Davy Llewellyn in "The Maid of Sker," while the child Bardie was suggested to the novelist by a niece."—Stuart J. Reid, D.C.L.

323. BLACKMORE (R. D.) Clara Vaughan, revised edition, frontispiece, PRESENTATION COPY to Mrs. Alfred Hunt, the artist, with A. L. s. to the Author inserted, stating " . . . I think you have never seen my fundamentally Corsican Story,—'Clara Vaughan.' If so, I will get S. Low to send you a copy. It was my first work in prose; and of course is full of faults, as indeed the rest are," original cloth 8vo. Sampson Low, 1872

 . . . The Declaration has had a very good success among the scattered population of our extensive parish—We have no dissenting place of Worship among us, and had it not been that the minds of some are poisoned by a Radical whig and Dissenting Journal printed at Kendal, the Papers would have been signed by almost everyone.
- 357 DICKENS (Charles) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, 1 Devonshire Place, Friday Evening, Decr. 18th (n. y.), to Sir Robert Ingles:
 . . . If I had had the gift of second sight (or second hearing) I should have shortened the short distance between us, into nothing . . .
- 358 IRVING (Washington) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, New York, 1856, to Sir Robert Ingles, with others of Ruskin, Hallam, Rogers, Southey, etc. (13)
- 359 OUVRY (Jane) A. L. s. 4 pp. 8vo, to Miss Mitford (wrote "Our Village"), 14 Oct. n. y.:
 . . . Like Jean Paul Richter, I have a great horror of a real good ghost story . . . I have been reading Lamb's selections from the old Dramatists . . . Have you ever read through any of Chapman's plays? Some of the passages struck me as full of fire and that too of the highest kind, and some of Hoffman's terrible ghostly stories—there is no language like the German for expressing the mysterious and the horrible, etc.

- 377 STEVENSON (R. L.) Unpublished A. L. s. (twice), in full and initials, to Sidney Colvin, 2 pp. 8vo, Yacht Heron, Oban, n. d. (? 1876):

I don't like you much because I wanted a letter; however, I live in the blessed hope of one this afternoon. Meantime this is to intimate that I am well. Living mainly upon these thy mercies potted and put up in tins. I am better but I am not strong yet. The yacht was nearly ashore this morning owing to tripping her anchors in half a gale from the S.W. and I had to labour very hard in rain and wind for about an hour. I know for my own part, I should rather have been drowned than gone on hauling as I did; I was just sick at heart with fatigue: and am still. I like the life amazingly and feel that if I could live thus for three months, might have a chance of pulling through: however they are after me at home; and must go back I fancy. Do send me the news. For God his sake, send me the news, Colvin. Please give Madame a Cornhill and add it to my account.

- 378 PETERS (Rev. Rich), Founder, with Franklin, of Philadelphia College, A. Doc. s. 1 p. 8vo, 13 Dec. 1743, to the "proprietaries" of Pennsylvania, account of expenses for removing people off Juniata, receipted

- 379 CARLYLE (Thomas) A REMARKABLE SERIES OF UPWARDS OF EIGHTY-SEVEN A. L. s. 8vo and 4to sizes, written between May 1832 and March, 1869, to JOHN STUART MILL; this correspondence, of a most intimate nature, commences a month after Carlyle's return to Craigenputtock, from his first stay in London, he discusses with great frankness his own writings, and a vivid light is thrown upon his struggle for fame; many of his famous friends are mentioned, including Wordsworth, Emerson, Leigh Hunt, Mazzini and numerous others; several of the letters deal with Mill's unfortunate accident in burning

the manuscript of the first volume of the "French Revolution":

That I can never write that volume again is indubitable: singular enough, the whole Earth could not get it back. He declined Mill's generous offer of £200, refusing to accept more than £100 as Compensation.

 Ten of the letters are believed to be unpublished.

- 380 MILL (John Stuart) A VERY FINE SERIES OF TWENTY-FIVE A. L. S. 1832-1845, written to Thomas Carlyle; an intimate collection, containing interesting references to Goethe, Sir Walter Scott and others (25)

- 381 PEPYS (Samuel) MANUSCRIPTS REPORTS, ORDERS, ETC. in many cases issued from the Navy Office, directed to Mr. Edward Gregory, Clerke of the Cheque of H.M. Shipyard att Chatham, 9th Feb. 1671, to the 20th March, 1674/5, concerning movements of ships and men, victualling, etc. in all 546 pp. small folio, stitched; containing 63 signatures of Samuel Pepys, as Clerk of the Acts, with many signatures of other Naval Officials, including Brouncker, Allin, Haddock, Jeremiah Smyth, John Pepys (Samuel's younger brother) and Thos. Hayter, his former Clerk

 This fine collection of documents is, apart from its intrinsic interest, a magnificent record of a man who, though known chiefly as a Diarist, was one of the most efficient Naval Officials that England has ever had. His signatures cease after June, 1673, when he was promoted to be Secretary for Affairs of the Navy, and his brother John, succeeded him.

- 382 BRONTE (Charlotte) A FINE AUTO. MANUSCRIPT "REMINISCENCES OF EARLY DAYS AFFECTIONATELY PRESENTED TO (name erased) BY AN OLD FRIEND AND SCHOOLFELLOW," 18 pp. 8vo, this important manuscript was addressed to the Revd. W. Carus-Wilson, who founded the Clergy Daughter's School at Casterton, where Charlotte Brontë was educated; this is a retraction of much that she wrote in "Jane Eyre" concerning the Casterton School

[See FRONTISPIECE.]

- 383 BRONTE FAMILY. GASKELL (Miss) A. L. s. 8 pp. 8vo, Oct. 28th, 1860, describing a visit to old Mr. Brontë at Haworth—NICHOLLS (A. B.) Husband of Charlotte Brontë, Portion of A. L. s. 6 pp. 8vo to Wemyss Reid, concerning the character of his father-in-law—NUSSEY (Miss E.) Friend of Charlotte

- 384 [AUSTEN (Jane)], Mrs Cassandra Austen, mother of Jane Austen, Eight A. L. s. (one imperfect) 1814 et seq, to her granddaughter Anna Lefroy, three of which contain references to Jane Austen. Writing from Shawton in 1814, she congratulates her upon her marriage and continues :

Your Aunt Jane says they ought to have been transmitted to you some time ago. I have just finished reading Waverley, which has afforded me more entertainment than any modern production (Aunt Jane's excepted) of the novel kind that I have read for a great while

In a further letter she writes that she had heard from Winchester that :

Jane has had a better night than she has had for many weeks, and has been comfortable all day, tho' still in a precarious state.

Speaking of the final illness and death she says :

Dear Jane is to be buried in the Cathedral I believe on Thursday.

AUSTEN (Francis William), brother of Jane, A. L. s. 1817 to B. Lefroy, announcing the last moments of his sister Jane; and seven A. L. s. from Jane's sister Cassandra Elizabeth to her niece Anna Lefroy, one contains a reference to a notice of Jane Austen works in "The Foreign and Colonial Review" :

Is it not remarkable that these books should have risen so much in celebrity after so many years.

An interesting collection. (16)

OCTAVO ET INFRA.

- 457 LE SAGE (ALAN RENÉ) THE HISTORY AND ADVENTURES OF GIL BLAS of Santillane, FIRST ENGLISH EDITION, 2 vol. original calf 12mo. Printed for Jacob Tonson, at Shakespear's-Head in the Strand, 1716

. "Almost the entire issue of the First two editions seems to have disappeared, and for this reason the bibliography of the early English editions of 'Gil Blas' is somewhat baffling. The first two volumes were published by Jacob Tonson in 1716, but the only volume which we can trace is Vol. I. which belonged to Mr. Purvis, of Stratford Place. That there was a steady demand for 'Gil Blas' may be assumed from the fact that a fourth edition was called for by 1738; the earliest in the British Museum is the third. The name of the first translator has not come down to us; possibly it was P. A. Motteux, who could only have translated the first two volumes, as he died in 1718."—The Times Literary Supplement, 16th June, 1921.

The collation is at follows :

(Vol. I) Engraved frontispiece, title and preliminaries, 6 ll. B to P in twelves, Q 8 ll. R 2 ll.

(Vol. II) Frontispiece (same as in vol. I), title and preliminaries, 4 ll. B to O in twelves (O 12 blank).

The earliest edition mentioned by Lowndes and the earliest edition in the British Museum is the third of 1737.

From the Library formed by Lady Skipwith in the 18th Century, with her ex-libris. The book also contains the autograph signature and date "Silina Skipwith, 13 Sept. 1787."

- 523 ALBUM AMICORUM OF SEBASTIAN VON STAMPS, of Vienna, ca. 192 ll. $12\frac{3}{4}$ in. by $10\frac{1}{2}$ in. A series of Engravings of scriptural and mythological subjects by Philip Galle, D. V. Cornhaert, and others after Martin Heemskerk and Francis Floris, many skilfully coloured, interleaved as an album with inscriptions, arms, and FINE AND ELABORATE FULL-PAGE DRAWINGS, illuminated preface of 2 pp. finely written, with decorative borders, in gold and colours, margins somewhat soiled and some repaired, old red velvet (worn and rebacked), brass corner-pieces c. 1571-80

 In the preface the owner invites his friends each to chose an engraving, to have it illuminated, and to fill the blank sheet facing it with arms and inscription. In doing so they employed artists whose skill and taste have produced a book remarkable alike for execution and for character and variety of display. The finely painted arms are either framed within full and elaborate decorative borders or subordinated to drawings of considerable interest portraying the signatories or reflecting their tastes and careers. Among the more important are the following:—

- f. 29b. Bombardment of a fortress (the signatory being an ordnance officer).
- f. 37b. Battle against the Turks, burning castle in background.
- f. 39b. Coarsing hares on tillage bordering a park.
- f. 47b. A musical party by a country stream.
- f. 59b. Fine drawing of a party of gallants at table with a lady (apparently a vintage celebration); a fool in the background.
- f. 86b. Two knights meeting in the lists. The corresponding engraving is one of the prodigal son; and the signatory (represented as the successful competitor) seems to emphasize, with some pride, a riotous youth, by wearing a pack of cards as a crest and covering the housings of his horse with further playing-cards surrounding a sketch of the prodigal. It is noticeable that neither rider wears any protection for the legs below the knee.
- f. 138b. A drinking party.
- f. 140b. Interesting drawing of the enrolment of men-at-arms before a richly draped table in a landscape
- f. 146b. An attractive summer landscape, with figures hunting, fishing and bathing.
- f. 161b. Hunting the stag.
- f. 182b. Hawking: a landscape full of figures, a party seated at an elaborate lunch by a wood in the background.

From the Rosenheim Collection. Mr. Rosenheim considered this one of the most important specimens he had met with, on account of its size (which is unusual if not unique for an Album Amicorum), its interleaved sets of rare engravings, and its beautiful drawings; he reproduced two of the latter in colours.

 (b) Two A. L. s. of Frau Wagner, the Composer's wife.
 (c) Ten A. L. s. of Catulle Mendès, the Poet and Dramatist, 13 pp. 8vo, relating to Wagner's "Rheingold."
 (d) Seven A. L. s. of M. Baligand, 15 pp. 8vo and 12mo, entirely relating to Wagner, his writings and Operas, and his death, 33 items in all, inlaid to small folio and bound in green morocco

Wagner's first letter, 10 June 1843, from Dresden, is to Ludwig Spohr, in reply to the latter's about the success of the "Flying Dutchman" at Cassel on 5 June. "My highly esteemed Master," . . . Considering its (the Opera) extraordinarily great difficulties I could hope for very little result on any stage . . . if a man was not at the head of it . . . especially energetic and capable . . . That you, my beloved Master, possess these capabilities above everyone else, I know." "But now I can see clearly that my lucky star is in the ascendant since I have won the sympathy of a man from whom an indulgent remark would have been an honour. To see him, himself, take up my cause in such a decided manner is such a happiness to me as distinguishes me above all others and fills me for the first time with a feeling of pride that no applause from the public has ever yet aroused in me . . . I must take care not to become vain and get my head turned. May God help me to remain honourable," etc.

This long and important Letter is subscribed: "For ever and ever with deepest respect, Your devoted pupil," etc. :

On 3 Feb. 1853 Wagner writes to R. Schoneck—"the talented young conductor"—about the pictures of the costumes (for Tannhauser) and mentions Franz Wallner (a touring operatic manager) . . . They had both already produced Tannhauser at Freiburg in Breisgau.

From Venice, 20 Dec. 1858, Wagner blames F. Brendel for not sending his "Musical Journal." Will stay in Venice a little longer where he is in great seclusion and has been prevented from working through illness. "However, Hartels shall soon receive the second act of "Tristan" and at all events, in the late summer of next year, I intend producing "Tristan and Isolde"—Where? It is still difficult to tell exactly. If by then, I shall not be able to come to Germany, I intend producing the Opera at the Court Theatre at Strasburg," etc.

From Paris, 1 July, 1861, Wagner writes to Franz Abt about the performing rights of Tannhäuser.

To an unnamed correspondent, but presumably the Editor of the Illustrierte Zeitung, Wagner writes from Vienna, 16 Jan. 1863,

about the slow progress of the printing of his poem. Speaks of the success of his concerts abroad, and adds :

"The popularity which has rapidly been won through my performances of Fragments from the 'Niebelungen' is extraordinary, and I believe that fortunately the interest will be so permanent that our publication will find a very large sale here," etc.

On 1 Feb. 1865, Wagner writes from Munich, to his Paris publisher Flaxland, asking for his March (for Tannhäuser) as quickly as possible, and in another letter to him the composer encloses the orchestral parts, and refers to doubling the parts for string instruments, for which purpose it should be sent to M. Arban, etc.

From Munich, 16 April 1868, the composer writes to his publisher J. J. Weber, offering a new manuscript for immediate publication, to be issued in the same form as his "Music of the Future." He is also ready to send him a revision of his "Opera and Drama" for a second edition, with a new preface. Wagner asks for 30 Louis d'or for both these—the new manuscript and the second edition—immediately, etc.

Another letter relating to the "Ring" is that of 31 May 1868, from Munich, to J. J. Weber. "I have just received an account of expenses incurred on my behalf at the time of my publication of the "Ring of the Niebelungen." Assumes "that you despair of ever selling as many copies as would be necessary. I therefore request you not to trouble about the second edition of 'Opera and Drama.'" Wagner asks for the manuscript of that work back. Of "German Art and politics," which his correspondent has already printed, the composer asks for 25 copies and does "not ask for a honorarium" for the work.

The final letter from Bologna, 27 Sept. 1876, to an unnamed friend refers to his "Flying Dutchman."

The contract for the publication of the "Ring," 2 pp. folio, Leipzig and Dresden, 1 Dec. 1862, gives the terms upon which Weber is to hold the right of publication and is signed by both Wagner and Weber, and sealed with their seals.

The Catulle Mendès letters refers to his articles on Wagner's "Rheingold," "Tristan und Isolde," etc.

The letters of Baligand to Michel Baronnet refer to Parsifal, Götterdämmerung. "Wagner who has passed Munich this morning for Palermo has finished the instrumentation of the second act and is a little indisposed." Thanks his correspondent for the translation of Wagner's "Art and Religion." He would send some fragments of Parsifal, but dare not venture because of a mysterious unbelievable order of the Master, so 'tis said. Indeed even here (in Munich) the artists who wish to study their roles with me only, are obliged to shew their parts to nobody but Levi or Fischer. "Wagner a une peur atroce devant un plagiat, devant les arrangements qui paraîtront comme poussent les champignons et devant les extraits qui seront exécutés dans les concerts."

- 575 FESSARD (Etienne), Engraver, A. L. s. 2 pp. 4to, Paris, 30 Aug. 1738, to Voltaire :

I have managed to keep out of the Press all my life, and whatever can happen to me now can only the more amuse me. It seems as if there were good promise of fun, but the theologians and philosophers have as yet kept silence. I am sending you a copy of the end of the poem, the part written this year. The Press insisted on printing it, tho' it was of no possible use to me) in order to complete the magnificent setting up of the previous sections,—which were an inestimable assistance to me in my work.

Very many thanks for sending me an early copy of your most interesting article on my beloved Louis. I have read it with great pleasure and think you have drawn a delightful picture of him. It has recalled many very pleasant memories to me . . . I could make several little alterations as to matters of fact but nothing of very great importance till Mr. Colvin's larger portrait comes. My recollection of the first line to Mr. Stockton is 'If thee, my Stockton, I forget' and I think that is decidedly better than yours. . . .

WATER-COLOUR DRAWINGS BY KATE GREENAWAY

The Property of Herbert G. Levy, Esq.

764 GREENAWAY (KATE) "Two at a Style," a water-colour drawing unsigned, $9\frac{1}{4}$ in. by $10\frac{3}{4}$ in. on a sunk mount, framed and glazed

 Reproduced in Spielmann and Layard's Kate Greenaway, facing p. 246. Reference to the work is made on p. 276. "Later on her colour became more subdued and even silvery. We see it in the little idyll, so pure in drawing and feeling, Two at a Style."

765 GREENAWAY (K.) Two girls, a Boy, and a Cat approaching a green gate, a water-colour drawing with descriptive lines in pencil, unsigned, on a sunk mount, framed and glazed

DICKENS (CHARLES) A VERY FINE SERIES OF A. L. S. ADDRESSED TO HIS SISTER-IN-LAW GEORGINA HOGARTH AND OTHERS.

- 767 A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Tavistock House, 7th August, 1857, to "My dear Georgy":

I have had an excellent night (a little opiate in the medicine), and have had no return whatever of the distress of yesterday morning. Come to me at the Garrick, in a cab, at $\frac{1}{2}$ past 8.

Ever affectionately

and A. L. (signature cut away) $\frac{1}{2}$ p. 8vo, saying he will not be home that night (2)

- 768 A. L. s. "C. D." 1 p. 8vo, Monday, 10th May, 1858, to "My dear Georgy":

. . . Did you arrange with John to take with you, such plate as you and he may agree to be necessary. . . He has brought me the wrong flesh-brush. Will you exchange it for mine—which is much harder. . .

- 769 A. L. s. "C. D." 1 p. 8vo, Tavistock House, 18th August, 1858, to "My dearest Georgy," saying he is recovering from a cold . . . :

I began to recover my voice, and I think I sang half the Irish Melodies to myself as I walked about, to test it. I got home at $\frac{1}{2}$ past 10, and mustard-poulticed and Barley-watered myself tremendously. Love to the dear Girls and to all

- 770 A VERY FINE A. L. s. 6 pp. 8vo, Morrison's Hotel, Dublin, 29th August, 1858, to "My dearest Georgy," describing the great success his Readings have met with in Dublin and Belfast . . . :

I have never seen Men go in to cry so undisguisedly as they did at that reading yesterday afternoon. They made no attempt whatever to hide it, and certainly cried more than the women. As to the Boots at night—and Mrs. Gamp too, it was just one roar with me and them. For they made me laugh so that sometimes I could not compose my face to go on

- 771 A. L. s. "C. D." 6 pp. 8vo, Royal Hotel, Scarborough Sept. 11, 1858, to the same, giving accounts of his Readings in York and Harrogate; with another A. L. (with signature cut away) (2)
- 772 A. L. s. "C. D." 3 pp. 8vo, King's Head, Sheffield, Sept. 17th, 1858, to the same . . . :
 . . . Halifax was too small for us. I never saw such an audience though. They were really worth reading to for nothing—though I didn't do exactly that . . . The run upon tickets here is so immense, that Arthur is obliged to get great bills out signifying that no more can be sold . . .
- 773 A. L. s. 4 pp. 8vo, Wolverhampton, Wednesday, 3rd Nov. 1858, to the same :
 Little Leamington came out in the most amazing manner yesterday. We took £130 and turned away hundreds upon hundreds of people. . .
- 774 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 16th May, 1859, to "My dear Georgy" :
 I have bought Household Words and its stock, for £3,550. The stock is worth, about £1,600; leaving the price at about—at the very most—£2,000; consequently, as I only, in reality, pay a fourth, I have bought it for £500.
 Tomorrow morning we advertise in all the papers "that the last No. of Household Words will be published on the 28th of May; after which time that publication will be merged with All the Year Round."
 Joyce was the bidder for the Whitefriars Gang. . . We had also arranged . . . that Chapman should bid against them up to a certain point, the consequence of which feint, was, that Nobody could make out what Arthur was bidding for at all, or why he was there.
 with another A. L., with signature cut away (2)
- 775 A. L. s. "C. D." 1 p. 8vo, Norwich, Royal Hotel, 12th Octr. 1859, to the same :
 Only a word. I was delighted to get your letter just now. Composing myself for the Reading. Immense Success last night: everything full of promise for tonight.
with envelope
- 776 A. L. s. "C. D." 1 p. 8vo, Eagle Hotel, Cambridge, 17th Oct. 1857, to the same :
 . . . I don't very much like the look of the place. It seems what Dean would call "Dirtily" dull.
- 777 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp. 8vo, Nottingham, 1st Oct. 1859, to the same :
 . . . Cambridge beyond everything. Nothing could be finer or better. Bradford very good indeed. A fine room here tonight, but tomorrow morning's idea (Arthur's) seeming all wrong, I have arranged that it shall not come off.
with envelope

- 778 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, New Year's Day, 1860, to the same :

. . . Wills having Miss Coutts's box. I went to Drury Lane again last night—read after coming home, and sending loving New Years to Gad's Hill—and did not get to bed until half past one!

Disclose to Mamie also to the Boys and Miss Crawford

- 779 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 1st August, 1860, to the same, concerning a house at Haverstock Hill

- 780 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp. 8vo, Tuesday Evening (dining here with Wills), Twenty-first August, 1860, to the same :

The Tavistock House Deed is signed, and the money paid! We have a fortnight to clear out in. . . .

- 781 A. L. s. "C. D." 1 p. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 31st Oct. 1860, to the same :

The enclosed letters are in Arthur Smith's "Department." In the envelope drawer—on the right hand of my writing table raised-top, immediately under the fighting frogs and the little bronze Trollope, You will find a printed envelope addressed to the said Arthur Smith. Will you put these letters in it—stamp it—and post it to him. . . .

- 782 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp 8vo, Bideford, 1st November, 1860, to the same, complaining of a "Beastly hotel" :

We had stinking fish for dinner, and have been able to drink nothing—though we have ordered wine, beer, and brandy and water. There is nothing in the hotel but Two tarts and a pair of snuffers. The landlady is playing cribbage with the landlord in the next room (behind a thin partition) and they seem quite comfortable.

- 783 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 14th Nov. 1860, to the same :

. . . Celeste appears to have made a real success with her new piece. There seems to have been a genuine excitement in the house on the first night. She was here this morning, on great hope, also, gave me marvellous accounts of an Irishman she has engaged from Dublin, where he has made a tremendous hit.

Wilkie brought the beginning of his part of the Xmas No. to dinner yesterday. . . .

- 784 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 28th Nov. 1860, to the same :

. . . Wilkie has shot ahead today, and we have made a great advance. But we still have the "Wind up" to do tomorrow, and also the final putting of it together and seeing that there is not a line too much. . . . Mrs. Gaskell being much too long for the purpose, I have put Charley Collins into the Xmas No. I have made him the first story too. . .

with another A. L. s., with a few lines cut away (2)

- 785 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 28th Dec. 1860, to the same:

. . . Now understand, both you and Mary, that there is not the least occasion to be anxious about me. I have no kind of pain—scarcely an uneasiness—but I am not rid of the disagreeables that affected me in that hot summer, and they must be put right. I have delivered myself over to be physicked, and that is the long and short of it.

If you have the least doubt about me, I am open to inspection . . . if I wanted nursing, I should say so, and should resort to you sooner than to anybody on earth. . . .

- 786 A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 2 Jany., 1861, to the same:

. . . Wilkie and I (secluded in a cab, as if I were a Crimean Invalid,—I have a Brougham today) went to the Duckley's last night. They do the most preposterous things, in the way of violin solos, deeply sentimental songs and Lucrezia Borgia music, sung by a majestic female in black velvet and Jewels, with a blackened face! all that part of it is intolerably bad. . . .

- 787 A. L. s. 1 p. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 5th Jan., 1861, to the same:

. . . Enclosed for the Tax collector. I have not the heart to open the enclosed. Will you make me out a list of that affectionate contribution towards my ruin.

- 788 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 7 Jan., 1861, to the same, concerning a visit to the theatre for which he had taken seats

- 789 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 9th Jan., 1861, to the same:

"We" are in the full swing of stopping managers from playing a Message from the Sea. I privately doubt the strength of our position in the Court of Chancery, if we try it; but it is worth while. . .

with another of the same date, referring to an invitation (2)

- 790 A. L. s. "C. D." 1 p. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 17 Jan., 1861, to the same:

When I was calculating yesterday about coming down, I was under an unaccountable impression that there was a day less in the week than there is. It seems to me that I cannot do better than come down at once and get my Number done at Gad's . . . I think the best thing I can do, will be to take possession of the best spare room, if you will have its fire lighted and will put my odds and ends there . . .

with envelope

- 791 A. L. s. "C. D." 1 p. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 31 Jan., 1861, to the same, asking that a bottle or two of whiskey be packed for him

- 792 A. L. s. "C. D." 3 pp. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 2nd Feby., 1861, to the same :
 You are quite right in your final discovery and decision touching Boswell I will be at Hanover Terrace to receive you. A van will come to London Bridge—not a little cart—and will call here on its way up, to take in the things that are to come from here. Surely I put the key of the cupboard where Kate's silver is, in the cupboard itself. I seem to have a perfect remembrance thereof, and it is on my bunch. . . .
- 793 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp. 8vo, Lord Warden Hotel, Dover, 26 May, 1861, to the same :
 I send enclosed cheque for £10-3-0. That is to say House £5, Waiters £4-10-0, Coal Bill £1-3-0. I hope I am still better. My face aches at times, but very little. I work well, walk well, eat and drink well, and sleep well. . . .
- 794 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 17th July, 1861, to the same :
 I think you had better bring me up a white dress shirt, or I may run aground.
 I will give you a pound when Duff Gordon marries Marguerite.
 I am sick to death of the faintest reference to Chauney's "party". . .
- 795 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 31 July, 1861, to the same :
 I send this down, to ask you to give Frank to bring here to me—and to give him, tomorrow morning at breakfast, so that he may not forget it—my small umbrella with the ivory handle. . . .
 Edmund Yates asks if he could come down on Friday in next week? Can he?
- 796 A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 19th Sept., 1861, to the same :
 I thought it, on consideration, best to order 3 belts and 3 red flannel waistcoats. There is some mistake about the winter trousers. They are all at Gad's Hill. Nothing here but boots. . . .
- 797 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 9th Oct., 1861, to the same, concerning the death of Mr. Henry Austin, his brother-in-law and friend
- 798 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp. 8vo, Office of Household Words, July 29, 1857, to the same :
 . . . asking her to send a collection of Cuttings, Pamphlets and Pictures of Newgate to Wilkie Collins, at 2 Harley Place, New Road.
- 799 A. L. s. "C. D." 1 p. 8vo, Household Words, 9th May, 1856, to the same :
 . . . The party came off here, last night, with great success. Cold collation of pigeon pie, collared red partridge, ham, roast fowls, and lobster salads. One hot dish, consisting of a most immense heap of asparagus. Considerable quantities of Punch were disposed of, and Charley and I got home at ½ past 2.
 He goes on to mention Stanfield, Forster and Maclise. Two holes—neatly repaired—affect two or three words.

- 800 A. L. s. "C. D." 4 pp. 8vo, Tavistock House, May 5th, 1856, to the same, describing a visit to the Dover Theatre, where a benefit performance for Mrs. Green was being given :

I made out Four and Ninepence in the House when I went in. We may have warmed up in the course of the evening to twelve shillings. . . . It was a most forlorn business, and I should have contributed a Sovereign to the Treasury if I had known her. I walked to Deal and back that day, and on the previous day walked over the Downs towards Canterbury. . . .

a long and very entertaining letter

- 801 A. L. s. "C. D." 2½ pp. 8vo, Household Words, 14th March, 1856, to the same :

Describing a visit to the Olympic Theatre with Webster, Lemon and Stanfield, and goes on to refer to the purchase of Gads' Hill. . . .

This day I have paid the purchase money for Gad's Hill Place. After drawing the cheque, I turned round to give it to Wills (£1,790), and said "Now isn't it an extraordinary thing—look at the day—Friday! I have been nearly drawing it half a dozen times when the lawyers have not been ready, and here it comes round upon a Friday as a matter of course. . . ."

- 802 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. 8vo, H. W. Office, 11 March, 1856, to the same :

. . . Tell Catherine that I have the most prodigious, overwhelming, crushing, astonishing, blinding, deafening, pulverising, scarifying secret of which Forster is the hero, imaginable by the united efforts of the whole British population. It is a thing of that kind, that after I knew it (from himself) this morning, I lay down flat, as if an engine and Tender had fallen upon me. . . .

- 803 A. L. s. "C. D." 2½ pp. 8vo, Household Words, 8th Feb., 1856, to the same, mentioning "Little Dorrit" :

. . . I have rescued Mark from a state of the deepest depression, and that the first No. of Little Dorrit has gone to 40,000, and the others are fast following. . . .

- 804 A. L. s. "C. D." 4 pp. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 22 July, 1854, to the same, concerning a book of Wilkie Collins :

Neither you nor Catherine did justice to Collin's book. I think it far away the cleverest Novel I have ever seen written by a new hand. It is much beyond Mrs. Gaskell, and is in some respects masterly. Valentine Blyth is as original and as well done as anything can be. The scene where he shews his pictures, is full of admirable humour. Nor do I recognize much imitation of myself. . . .

with a short Letter to the same, dated Feb., 1856 (2)

- 805 A. L. s. "C. D." 3½ pp. 8vo, Hotel de la Ville, Milan, 25 Oct., 1852, to the same :

Making great fun of the moustaches of Wilkie Collins, and Augustus Egg, and describing their adventures in Switzerland and Italy.

with envelope

- 806 A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Office of Household Words, 31st August, 1850, to the same :

I write these hasty &c. &c. to say Forster is not coming. Consequently if Fred is (which I suppose you know) he may have the Pump Room.

- 807 A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 16 August, 1859, to Wilkie Collins, mentioning "A Tale of Two Cities" :

I should have written to you this last week from Gad's Hill, but that I was tempted out on the Medway for two summer days (rowed 20 miles at a stretch, on one of them), and so slid back in the Tale of Two Cities, and have since been doggedly at it. . . . I have not the slightest doubt that The Woman in White is the name of names, and the very title of very titles. . . .

- 808 A. L. s. 1½ pp. 8vo, Gad's Hill Place, 8 Oct., 1866, to A. Roche, Esq. :

. . . Joan of Arc's story from the Childs' History of England—as you name that passage—is quite at your service for the purpose of your projected work, or you can make any other extract, of similar length, from one of my books except the "Sketches by Boz."

with envelope

- 809 DICKENS (C.) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo (in French), Tavistock House, Jeudi, Mars 25, 1858, to Mons. Bamps of Brussels, disclaiming all knowledge of a M. Louis Dickens, with envelope—WELLINGTON (Duke of) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Paris, June, 1818 ; and BEACONSFIELD (Earl) A. L. s. "D" (3)

- 810 DICKENS (C.) A. L. s. 1½ pp. 8vo, Gad's Hill Place, 28 Oct. 1860, to Mrs. Lehman framed and glazed

Unfortunately I cannot come on Monday, as the looming of my Cornish Giants in the distance obliges me to stick to work. . . .

You have heard of Mary's horse having gone down with her? The undersigned reverend Parent wishes to know, what next. . .

- 811 DICKENS (C.) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Gad's Hill Place, 5th June, 1864, to Tom Taylor, thanking him for obtaining a grant of £60 a year to Mrs. Austen

- 812 TROLLOPE (Anthony) A. L. s. 2½ pp. 8vo, 1874, to Tom Taylor, concerning a fund that had been collected for a Mrs. Brooks

- 813 LITERARY, including Mark Lemon, Shirley Brooks, Wm. Black, H. J. Byron, Prof. Huxley, Lewis Morris, John Ruskin, Arthur Severn, etc. (42)

regularity prevailed, so that with us days, weeks and months passed quickly away, and we were happy in each others society, being bound together by the strongest ties of friendship and affection.

It would occupy too much space to relate the many incidents that occurred during my long Pupilage at Fasterton, but one circumstance which gave us all pleasure must not be omitted, and that was a visit from our beloved friend and Pastor, who always welcomed us with a smile, and had a kind encouraging word, ^{for} all; indeed he took a most lively interest in all our proceedings, and it was a source of comfort to him, when he received tidings of our good report, for he

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 2s. 6d.; and so on in proportion.
- III. All lots are sold subject to the right of the seller or his agent to bid, or else to impose a reserve.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10s. in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase-money, in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed; but if, upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are received back within FOURTEEN DAYS after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.
- VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any worm-holes, stained or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates or blank leaves, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings, is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.
- VIII. No Imperfect Book will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.
- IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.
- X. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Messrs. SOTHEY & CO. are prepared to execute bids, and in addition to advise intending purchasers as far as possible, if requested by them to do so, without making any charge for either service. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

 together 11 vol. original vellum folio
- * * * VERY RARE. No sale of a complete set of first editions seems to have occurred in modern times. This set is complete except for the absence of parts 12 and 13 (not published till 1658 and 1677 respectively), and of the duplicate "Fift Part," containing the section on Ecclesiastical Law (see the next two lots).

- 31 COKE (SIR E.) Les Reports, another set, Parts I-VII only, all FIRST EDITIONS, with the blank leaves in Parts III and V and at the end of Part VI, wants the first leaf (blank) of Parts VI and VII, Parts I-IV in 1 vol. calf, Part V bound in two leaves of a manuscript choir-book on vellum, original stitching, Part VI original calf, Part VII original vellum; together 4 vol.
folio. 1600-8

* * The "Fift Part" is not that contained in the previous lot, which is absent here, but a distinct treatise, "Of the Kings Ecclesiastical Law." The titles are both dated 1605 and are exactly similar in wording and setting up, but in the quotation from Cicero the "T" of "Tull." comes below the "d" of "cedam" in this treatise and below the "c" of "facile" in the other. The bilingual preface which follows is identical, but the English and Latin are here printed in parallel columns, while in the other the English follows the Latin. The remainder is entirely different. Collation of this "Fift Part": [A]-L 6 in fours, [A] 1 and L 6 blank.

- 32 Coke (Sir E.) Les Reports, Parts IV and V (both sections) only, in 1 vol. FIRST EDITION of the first two, second edition (1606) of the section on Ecclesiastical Law, wants the first leaf (blank) of Part V, old calf, back torn
folio. 1604-5-6

* * The collation of the second "Fift Part" is: A, 6 ll., B-K in fours; A 2 signed B 1. The preface to the original "Fift Part" is not reprinted in this edition.

- 33 Coke (Sir E.) The First Part [The Second Part] of the Institutes of the Lawes of England, 2 vol. titles within woodcut borders, portrait by Payne in each vol. original calf (not uniform)
folio. 1629-42

I am very busy in these days, to very small purpose, and do not think I shall ever get your friend Cromwell resuscitated. He lies deep, poor fellow, under the stupidities of two hundred years.

I am right glad of the response to "Past and Present" from so sound a heart. The book has been a kind of deliverance to me; and has one merit, that of speaking plainly out what it means: none of the commonest merits hereabouts at present, tho' it ought to be a universal one!

 This complete record of every run of this celebrated pack over such a long period makes it a series of great interest and importance.

Another Property.

- 321 BLACKMORE (R. D.) AUTO. MANUSCRIPT OF HIS POEM CUCKOO SONG, 6 stanzas, 1 p. 4to, together with Blackmore's Auto. Correspondence from 26 Nov. 1878 to 2 Mar. 1898, with the Macquoids, 21 A. L. s. 3 A. L. s. to the Rev. C. J. Down, 2 A. L. s. to Professor Owen, an A. L. s. to Nicholas Snow, and another to Morris Collier, 28 in all, 71 pp. 8vo, with the addressed and stamped envelopes, green morocco. The Letters refer to his Novels: "Lorna Doone," "Springhaven," etc. and to his "first and probably last attempt at a hymn," upon the death "of a very dear relative":

Has not read any of Henry James' novels and doubts whether he would like his books. When he wrote "Lorna Doone" had not the least idea it would ever be heard of in Oare parish "for my books had hitherto obtained scarcely any notice." Had he known there was a Nicholas Snow in Oare "filling the position which you fill, I would never have used the name . . . It is too late now to help it, and I can only say that I am very sorry, and hope that now you know the truth, you will forgive such a trespass on your manor." Asks Macquoid if he has seen his little story "Crocker's Hole."

"I doubt if you have caught me napping in the cave. The "watery hubbub" was the splash of oars, not of waves" [this refers to a passage in "Lorna Doone."] Sends Down a copy of T(ommy) U(pmore). Has not seen Hardy's (Thomas Hardy, author of "Tess") new story yet. "The Mayor of Casterbridge." "Springhaven" cost me a lot of trouble." His garden sucks down every penny," "the growth of fruit for profit"! . . . I have tried for 30 years, and lost some £20,000, which might have saved me from the ink-bottle." Doesn't think he can write a short story. His right arm is likely to fail as his left did two years ago, cannot write without great pain. "the doctors can't make it out." Fears it will be impossible to reconcile his designs with Messrs. Lippincott's purpose, unless they take his story as a serial. It would be the length, of a 2 vol. novel and his price (for English and American serial use, and American full copyright) £1200 clear, and payable in four instalments "I do not think that my phiz is to be found any where save in L(orna) D(oone)—I did not want it there." "Sciatica has marked me for its own." etc.

 IN ALL PROBABILITY THE FINEST BLACKMORE SERIES OF LETTERS THAT HAS EVER BEEN OFFERED.

- 322 BLACKMORE (R. D.) AUTO. MANUSCRIPT OF HIS NOVEL "THE MAID OF SKER," 264 pp. 4to, WITH MANY CORRECTIONS BY THE AUTHOR, and differing very considerably from the work as printed. APPARENTLY THE ONLY MANUSCRIPT OF ANY OF THIS AUTHOR'S NOVELS THAT HAS BEEN SOLD AT AUCTION, green morocco

 The "Maid of Sker" was the first novel Blackmore ever attempted. It was thrown aside and finished later. "Blackmore has drawn few more realistic portraits than that of Davy Llewellyn in "The Maid of Sker," while the child Bardie was suggested to the novelist by a niece."—Stuart J. Reid, D.C.L.

- 323 BLACKMORE (R. D.) Clara Vaughan, revised edition, frontispiece, PRESENTATION COPY to Mrs. Alfred Hunt, the artist, with A. L. s. to the Author inserted, stating " . . . I think you have never seen my fundamentally Corsican Story,—'Clara Vaughan.' If so, I will get S. Low to send you a copy. It was my first work in prose; and of course is full of faults, as indeed the rest are," original cloth 8vo. Sampson Low, 1872

. . . The waves rushed forward sometimes with an impetuosity so sudden, so furious, & so unexpected that I have not been always able to escape a surprise. I won't say of a wet jacket, yet of something more than a wet Peticoat.
My son has 8 fellow Cantabs, at work, like himself with A. plus B. under the same Tutor.
- 349 NELSON (Admiral Viscount) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, Wednesday, 1 o'clock, to Earl Moira:
Sir William is I think as bad as possible to move about, he is just gone out to say at Carlton House that he cannot dine there tomorrow.

- 356 WORDSWORTH (Wm.) A. L. s. 1½ pp. 4to, Rydal Mount, Feby. 21st, 1832, to Sir Robert Ingles:
. . . The Declaration has had a very good success among the scattered population of our extensive parish—We have no dissenting place of Worship among us, and had it not been that the minds of some are poisoned by a Radical whig and Dissenting Journal printed at Kendal, the Papers would have been signed by almost everyone.
- 357 DICKENS (Charles) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, 1 Devonshire Place, Friday Evening, Decr. 18th (n. y.), to Sir Robert Ingles:
. . . If I had had the gift of second sight (or second hearing) I should have shortened the short distance between us, into nothing . . .
- 358 IRVING (Washington) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, New York, 1856, to Sir Robert Ingles, with others of Ruskin, Hallam, Rogers, Southey, etc. (13)
- ~~359~~ OUVRY (Jane) A. L. s. 4 pp. 8vo, to Miss Mitford (wrote "Our Village"), 14 Oct. n. y.:
. . . Like Jean Paul Richter, I have a great horror of a real good ghost story . . . I have been reading Lamb's selections from the old Dramatists . . . Have you ever read through any of Chapman's plays? Some of the passages struck me as full of fire and that too of the highest kind, and some of Hoffman's terrible ghostly stories—there is no language like the German for expressing the mysterious and the horrible, etc.

- 360 [FRANKLIN (Dr. Benjamin)] Contemporary Manuscript of Dr. John Calder's Letter to Franklin, from which it was printed in "Illustrations of Literature," 2½ pp. 4to (undated):
Has read what Franklin sent for his perusal "... a convincing proof that you have expended much of your money, and ... your time ... on very serious and interesting subjects ... very bad and portentous of worse as all things appear to be, over all this earth, and as we of the British Dominions more especially grievously feel," etc.

- 377 STEVENSON (R. L.) Unpublished A. L. s. (twice), in full and initials, to Sidney Colvin, 2 pp. 8vo, Yacht Heron, Oban, n. d. (? 1876):

I don't like you much because I wanted a letter; however, I live in the blessed hope of one this afternoon. Meantime this is to intimate that I am well. Living mainly upon these thy mercies potted and put up in tins. I am better but I am not strong yet. The yacht was nearly ashore this morning owing to tripping her anchors in half a gale from the S.W. and I had to labour very hard in rain and wind for about an hour. I know for my own part, I should rather have been drowned than gone on hauling as I did; I was just sick at heart with fatigue: and am still. I like the life amazingly and feel that if I could live thus for three months, might have a chance of pulling through: however they are after me at home; and must go back I fancy. Do send me the news. For God his sake, send me the news, Colvin. Please give Madame a Cornhill and add it to my account.

- 378 PETERS (Rev. Rich), Founder, with Franklin, of Philadelphia College, A. Doc. s. 1 p. 8vo, 13 Dec. 1743, to the "proprietaries" of Pennsylvania, account of expenses for removing people off Juniata, receipted

- 379 CARLYLE (Thomas) A REMARKABLE SERIES OF UPWARDS OF EIGHTY-SEVEN A. L. s. 8vo and 4to sizes, written between May 1832 and March, 1869, to JOHN STUART MILL; this correspondence, of a most intimate nature, commences a month after Carlyle's return to Craigenputtock, from his first stay in London, he discusses with great frankness his own writings, and a vivid light is thrown upon his struggle for fame; many of his famous friends are mentioned, including Wordsworth, Emerson, Leigh Hunt, Mazzini and numerous others; several of the letters deal with Mill's unfortunate accident in burning

the manuscript of the first volume of the "French Revolution":

That I can never write that volume again is indubitable: singular enough, the whole Earth could not get it back. He declined Mill's generous offer of £200, refusing to accept more than £100 as Compensation.

 Ten of the letters are believed to be unpublished.

- 380 MILL (John Stuart) A VERY FINE SERIES OF TWENTY-FIVE A. L. S. 1832-1845, written to Thomas Carlyle; an intimate collection, containing interesting references to Goethe, Sir Walter Scott and others (25)

100. 381 PEPYS (Samuel) MANUSCRIPTS REPORTS, ORDERS, ETC. in many cases issued from the Navy Office, directed to Mr. Edward Gregory, Clerk of the Cheque of H.M. Shipyard att Chatham, 9th Feb. 1671, to the 20th March, 1674/5, concerning movements of ships and men, victualling, etc. in all 546 pp. small folio, stitched; containing 63 signatures of Samuel Pepys, as Clerk of the Acts, with many signatures of other Naval Officials, including Brouncker, Allin, Haddock, Jeremiah Smyth, John Pepys (Samuel's younger brother) and Thos. Hayter, his former Clerk

 This fine collection of documents is, apart from its intrinsic interest, a magnificent record of a man who, though known chiefly as a Diarist, was one of the most efficient Naval Officials that England has ever had. His signatures cease after June, 1673, when he was promoted to be Secretary for Affairs of the Navy, and his brother John, succeeded him.

- 382 BRONTE (Charlotte) A FINE AUTO. MANUSCRIPT "REMINISCENCES OF EARLY DAYS AFFECTIONATELY PRESENTED TO (name erased) BY AN OLD FRIEND AND SCHOOLFELLOW," 18 pp. 8vo, this important manuscript was addressed to the Revd. W. Carus-Wilson, who founded the Clergy Daughter's School at Casterton, where Charlotte Brontë was educated; this is a retraction of much that she wrote in "Jane Eyre" concerning the Casterton School

 AN IMPORTANT MANUSCRIPT AND BELIEVED TO BE ENTIRELY UNPUBLISHED.

[See FRONTISPIECE.]

- 383 BRONTE FAMILY. GASKELL (Miss) A. L. s. 8 pp. 8vo, Oct. 28th, 1860, describing a visit to old Mr. Brontë at Haworth—NICHOLLS (A. B.) Husband of Charlotte Brontë, Portion of A. L. s. 6 pp. 8vo to Wemyss Reid, concerning the character of his father-in-law—NUSSEY (Miss E.) Friend of Charlotte

- 384 [AUSTEN (Jane)], Mrs Cassandra Austen, mother of Jane Austen, Eight A. L. s. (one imperfect) 1814 et seq, to her granddaughter Anna Lefroy, three of which contain references to Jane Austen. Writing from Shawton in 1814, she congratulates her upon her marriage and continues :

Your Aunt Jane says they ought to have been transmitted to you some time ago. I have just finished reading Waverley, which has afforded me more entertainment than any modern production (Aunt Jane's excepted) of the novel kind that I have read for a great while

In a further letter she writes that she had heard from Winchester that :

Jane has had a better night than she has had for many weeks, and has been comfortable all day, tho' still in a precarious state.

Speaking of the final illness and death she says :

Dear Jane is to be buried in the Cathedral I believe on Thursday.

AUSTEN (Francis William), brother of Jane, A. L. s. 1817 to B. Lefroy, announcing the last moments of his sister Jane; and seven A. L. s. from Jane's sister Cassandra Elizabeth to her neice Anna Lefroy, one contains a reference to a notice of Jane Austen works in "The Foreign and Colonial Review" :

Is it not remarkable that these books should have risen so much in celebrity after so many years.

An interesting collection. (16)

457. LE SAGE (ALAN RENÉ) THE HISTORY AND ADVENTURES OF GIL BLAS of Santillane, FIRST ENGLISH EDITION, 2 vol. original calf 12mo. Printed for Jacob Tonson, at Shakespear's-Head in the Strand, 1716

* * "Almost the entire issue of the First two editions seems to have disappeared, and for this reason the bibliography of the early English editions of 'Gil Blas' is somewhat baffling. The first two volumes were published by Jacob Tonson in 1716, but the only volume which we can trace is Vol. 1. which belonged to Mr. Purvis, of Stratford Place. That there was a steady demand for 'Gil Blas' may be assumed from the fact that a fourth edition was called for by 1738; the earliest in the British Museum is the third. The name of the first translator has not come down to us; possibly it was P. A. Motteux, who could only have translated the first two volumes, as he died in 1718."—The Times Literary Supplement, 16th June, 1921.

The collation is at follows:

(Vol. I) Engraved frontispiece, title and preliminaries, 6 ll. B to P in twelves, Q 8 ll. R 2 ll.

(Vol. II) Frontispiece (same as in vol. I), title and preliminaries, 4 ll. B to O in twelves (O 12 blank).

The earliest edition mentioned by Lowndes and the earliest edition in the British Museum is the third of 1737.

From the Library formed by Lady Skipwith in the 18th Century, with her ex-libris. The book also contains the autograph signature and date "Silina Skipwith, 13 Sept. 1787."

- 523 ALBUM AMICORUM OF SEBASTIAN VON STAMPS, of Vienna, ca. 192 ll. 12 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. by 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. A series of Engravings of scriptural and mythological subjects by Philip Galle, D. V. Cornhaert, and others after Martin Heemskerk and Francis Floris, many skilfully coloured, interleaved as an album with inscriptions, arms, and FINE AND ELABORATE FULL-PAGE DRAWINGS, illuminated preface of 2 pp. finely written, with decorative borders, in gold and colours, margins somewhat soiled and some repaired, old red velvet (worn and rebacked), brass corner-pieces c. 1571-80

 In the preface the owner invites his friends each to chose an engraving, to have it illuminated, and to fill the blank sheet facing it with arms and inscription. In doing so they employed artists whose skill and taste have produced a book remarkable alike for execution and for character and variety of display. The finely painted arms are either framed within full and elaborate decorative borders or subordinated to drawings of considerable interest portraying the signatories or reflecting their tastes and careers. Among the more important are the following:—

- f. 296. Bombardment of a fortress (the signatory being an ordnance officer).
- f. 376. Battle against the Turks, burning castle in background.
- f. 396. Coarsing hares on tillage bordering a park.
- f. 476. A musical party by a country stream.
- f. 596. Fine drawing of a party of gallants at table with a lady (apparently a vintage celebration); a fool in the background.
- f. 866. Two knights meeting in the lists. The corresponding engraving is one of the prodigal son; and the signatory (represented as the successful competitor) seems to emphasize, with some pride, a riotous youth, by wearing a pack of cards as a crest and covering the housings of his horse with further playing-cards surrounding a sketch of the prodigal. It is noticeable that neither rider wears any protection for the legs below the knee.
- f. 1386. A drinking party.
- f. 1406. Interesting drawing of the enrolment of men-at-arms before a richly draped table in a landscape
- f. 1466. An attractive summer landscape, with figures hunting, fishing and bathing.
- f. 1616. Hunting the stag.
- f. 1826. Hawking: a landscape full of figures, a party seated at an elaborate lunch by a wood in the background.

From the Rosenheim Collection. Mr. Rosenheim considered this one of the most important specimens he had met with, on account of its size (which is unusual if not unique for an Album Amicorum), its interleaved sets of rare engravings, and its beautiful drawings; he reproduced two of the latter in colours.

Wagner's first letter, 10 June 1843, from Dresden, is to Ludwig Spohr, in reply to the latter's about the success of the "Flying Dutchman" at Cassel on 5 June. "My highly esteemed Master," . . . Considering its (the Opera) extraordinarily great difficulties I could hope for very little result on any stage . . . if a man was not at the head of it . . . especially energetic and capable . . . That you, my beloved Master, possess these capabilities above everyone else, I know." "But now I can see clearly that my lucky star is in the ascendant since I have won the sympathy of a man from whom an indulgent remark would have been an honour. To see him, himself, take up my cause in such a decided manner is such a happiness to me as distinguishes me above all others and fills me for the first time with a feeling of pride that no applause from the public has ever yet aroused in me . . . I must take care not to become vain and get my head turned. May God help me to remain honourable," etc. 1843

This long and important Letter is subscribed: "For ever and ever with deepest respect, Your devoted pupil," etc. :

On 3 Feb. 1853 Wagner writes to R. Schoneck—"the talented young conductor"—about the pictures of the costumes (for Tannhauser) and mentions Franz Wallner (a touring operatic manager) . . . They had both already produced Tannhauser at Freiburg in Breisgau.

From Venice, 20 Dec. 1858, Wagner blames F. Brendel for not sending his "Musical Journal." Will stay in Venice a little longer where he is in great seclusion and has been prevented from working through illness. "However, Hartels shall soon receive the second act of "Tristan" and at all events, in the late summer of next year, I intend producing "Tristan and Isolde"—Where? It is still difficult to tell exactly. If by then, I shall not be able to come to Germany, I intend producing the Opera at the Court Theatre at Strasburg," etc.

From Paris, 1 July, 1861, Wagner writes to Franz Abt about the performing rights of Tannhäuser.

To an unnamed correspondent, but presumably the Editor of the Illustrierte Zeitung, Wagner writes from Vienna, 16 Jan. 1863,

about the slow progress of the printing of his poem. Speaks of the success of his concerts abroad, and adds :

"The popularity which has rapidly been won through my performances of Fragments from the 'Nibelungen' is extraordinary, and I believe that fortunately the interest will be so permanent that our publication will find a very large sale here," etc.

On 1 Feb. 1865, Wagner writes from Munich, to his Paris publisher Flaxland, asking for his March (for Tannhäuser) as quickly as possible, and in another letter to him the composer encloses the orchestral parts, and refers to doubling the parts for string instruments, for which purpose it should be sent to M. Arban, etc.

From Munich, 16 April 1868, the composer writes to his publisher J. J. Weber, offering a new manuscript for immediate publication, to be issued in the same form as his "Music of the Future." He is also ready to send him a revision of his "Opera and Drama" for a second edition, with a new preface. Wagner asks for 30 Louis d'or for both these—the new manuscript and the second edition—immediately, etc.

Another letter relating to the "Ring" is that of 31 May 1868, from Munich, to J. J. Weber. "I have just received an account of expenses incurred on my behalf at the time of my publication of the "Ring of the Nibelungen." Assumes "that you despair of ever selling as many copies as would be necessary. I therefore request you not to trouble about the second edition of 'Opera and Drama.'" Wagner asks for the manuscript of that work back. Of "German Art and politics," which his correspondent has already printed, the composer asks for 25 copies and does "not ask for a honorarium" for the work.

The final letter from Bologna, 27 Sept. 1876, to an unnamed friend refers to his "Flying Dutchman."

The contract for the publication of the "Ring," 2 pp. folio, Leipzig and Dresden, 1 Dec. 1862, gives the terms upon which Weber is to hold the right of publication and is signed by both Wagner and Weber, and sealed with their seals.

The Catulle Mendès letters refers to his articles on Wagner's "Rheingold," "Tristan und Isolde," etc.

The letters of Baligand to Michel Baronnet refer to Parsifal, Götterdämmerung. "Wagner who has passed Munich this morning for Palermo has finished the instrumentation of the second act and is a little indisposed." Thanks his correspondent for the translation of Wagner's "Art and Religion." He would send some fragments of Parsifal, but dare not venture because of a mysterious unbelievable order of the Master, so 'tis said. Indeed even here (in Munich) the artists who wish to study their roles with me only, are obliged to shew their parts to nobody but Levi or Fischer. "Wagner a une peur atroce devant un plagiat, devant les arrangements qui paraîtront comme poussent les champignons et devant les extraits qui seront exécutés dans les concerts."

- 575 FESSARD (Etienne), Engraver, A. L. s. 2 pp. 4to, Paris, 30 Aug. 1738, to Voltaire :

Very many thanks for sending me an early copy of your most interesting article on my beloved Louis. I have read it with great pleasure and think you have drawn a delightful picture of him. It has recalled many very pleasant memories to me . . . I could make several little alterations as to matters of fact but nothing of very great importance till Mr. Colvin's larger portrait comes. My recollection of the first line to Mr. Stockton is 'If thee, my Stockton, I forget' and I think that is decidedly better than yours. . . .

DICKENS (CHARLES) A VERY FINE SERIES OF A. L. S. ADDRESSED TO HIS SISTER-IN-LAW GEORGINA HOGARTH AND OTHERS.

767 A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Tavistock House, 7th August, 1857, to "My dear Georgy":

I have had an excellent night (a little opiate in the medicine), and have had no return whatever of the distress of yesterday morning. Come to me at the Garrick, in a cab, at $\frac{1}{2}$ past 8.

Ever affectionately

and A. L. (signature cut away) $\frac{1}{2}$ p. 8vo, saying he will not be home that night (2)

768 A. L. s. "C. D." 1 p. 8vo, Monday, 10th May, 1858, to "My dear Georgy":

. . . Did you arrange with John to take with you, such plate as you and he may agree to be necessary. . . He has brought me the wrong flesh-brush. Will you exchange it for mine—which is much harder. . .

769 A. L. s. "C. D." 1 p. 8vo, Tavistock House, 18th August, 1858, to "My dearest Georgy," saying he is recovering from a cold. . . :

I began to recover my voice, and I think I sang half the Irish Melodies to myself as I walked about, to test it. I got home at $\frac{1}{2}$ past 10, and mustard-poulticed and Barley-watered myself tremendously. Love to the dear Girls and to all

770 A VERY FINE A. L. s. 6 pp. 8vo, Morrison's Hotel, Dublin, 29th August, 1858, to "My dearest Georgy," describing the great success his Readings have met with in Dublin and Belfast. . . :

I have never seen Men go in to cry so undisguisedly as they did at that reading yesterday afternoon. They made no attempt whatever to hide it, and certainly cried more than the women. As to the Boots at night—and Mrs. Gamp too, it was just one roar with me and them. For they made me laugh so that sometimes I could not compose my face to go on

- 771 A VERY FINE A. L. s. "C. D." 6 pp. 8vo, Royal Hotel, Scarborough Sept. 11, 1858, to the same, giving accounts of his Readings in York and Harrogate; with another A. L. (with signature cut away) (2)
- 772 A. L. s. "C. D." 3 pp. 8vo, King's Head, Sheffield, Sept. 17th, 1858, to the same . . . :
 . . . Halifax was too small for us. I never saw such an audience though. They were really worth reading to for nothing—though I didn't do exactly that . . . The run upon tickets here is so immense, that Arthur is obliged to get great bills out signifying that no more can be sold . . .
- 773 A. L. s. 4 pp. 8vo, Wolverhampton, Wednesday, 3rd Nov. 1858, to the same :
 Little Leamington came out in the most amazing manner yesterday. We took £130 and turned away hundreds upon hundreds of people. . .
- 774 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 16th May, 1859, to "My dear Georgy" :
 I have bought Household Words and its stock, for £3,550. The stock is worth, about £1,600; leaving the price at about—at the very most—£2,000; consequently, as I only, in reality, pay a fourth, I have bought it for £500.
 Tomorrow morning we advertise in all the papers "that the last No. of Household Words will be published on the 28th of May; after which time that publication will be merged with All the Year Round."
 Joyce was the bidder for the Whitefriars Gang. . . We had also arranged . . . that Chapman should bid against them up to a certain point, the consequence of which feint, was, that Nobody could make out what Arthur was bidding for at all, or why he was there.

- 777 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp. 8vo, Nottingham, 1st Oct. 1859, to the same :
 . . . Cambridge beyond everything. Nothing could be finer or better. Bradford very good indeed. A fine room here tonight, but tomorrow morning's idea (Arthur's) seeming all wrong, I have arranged that it shall not come off.
with envelope

- 778 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, New Year's Day, 1860, to the same :

. . . Wills having Miss Coutts's box. I went to Drury Lane again last night—read after coming home, and sending loving New Years to Gad's Hill—and did not get to bed until half past one!

Disclose to Mamie also to the Boys and Miss Crawford

- 779 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 1st August, 1860, to the same, concerning a house at Haverstock Hill

- 780 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp. 8vo, Tuesday Evening (dining here with Wills), Twenty-first August, 1860, to the same :

The Tavistock House Deed is signed, and the money paid! We have a fortnight to clear out in. . . .

- 781 A. L. s. "C. D." 1 p. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 31st Oct. 1860, to the same :

The enclosed letters are in Arthur Smith's "Department." In the envelope drawer—on the right hand of my writing table raised-top, immediately under the fighting frogs and the little bronze Trollope, You will find a printed envelope addressed to the said Arthur Smith. Will you put these letters in it—stamp it—and post it to him. . . .

- 782 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp 8vo, Bideford, 1st November, 1860, to the same, complaining of a "Beastly hotel" :

We had stinking fish for dinner, and have been able to drink nothing—though we have ordered wine, beer, and brandy and water. There is nothing in the hotel but Two tarts and a pair of snuffers. The landlady is playing cribbage with the landlord in the next room (behind a thin partition) and they seem quite comfortable.

- 783 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 14th Nov. 1860, to the same :

. . . Celeste appears to have made a real success with her new piece. There seems to have been a genuine excitement in the house on the first night. She was here this morning, on great hope, also, gave me marvellous accounts of an Irishman she has engaged from Dublin, where he has made a tremendous hit.

Wilkie brought the beginning of his part of the Xmas No. to dinner yesterday. . . .

- 784 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 28th Nov. 1860, to the same :

. . . Wilkie has shot ahead today, and we have made a great advance. But we still have the "Wind up" to do tomorrow, and also the final putting of it together and seeing that there is not a line too much. . . . Mrs. Gaskell being much too long for the purpose, I have put Charley Collins into the Xmas No. I have made him the first story too. . .

A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 28th Dec. 1860, to the same:

... Now understand, both you and Mary, that there is not the least occasion to be anxious about me. I have no kind of pain—scarcely an uneasiness—but I am not rid of the disagreeables that affected me in that hot summer, and they must be put right. I have delivered myself over to be physicked, and that is the long and short of it.

If you have the least doubt about me, I am open to inspection... if I wanted nursing, I should say so, and should resort to you sooner than to anybody on earth....

786 A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 2 Jany., 1861, to the same:

... Wilkie and I (secluded in a cab, as if I were a Crimean Invalid,—I have a Brougham today) went to the Duckley's last night. They do the most preposterous things, in the way of violin solos, deeply sentimental songs and Lucrezia Borgia music, sung by a majestic female in black velvet and Jewels, with a blackened face! all that part of it is intolerably bad....

787 A. L. s. 1 p. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 5th Jan., 1861, to the same:

... Enclosed for the Tax collector. I have not the heart to open the enclosed. Will you make me out a list of that affectionate contribution towards my ruin.

788 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 7 Jan., 1861, to the same, concerning a visit to the theatre for which he had taken seats

789 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 9th Jan., 1861, to the same:

"We" are in the full swing of stopping managers from playing a Message from the Sea. I privately doubt the strength of our position in the Court of Chancery, if we try it; but it is worth while..

with another of the same date, referring to an invitation (2)

790 A. L. s. "C. D." 1 p. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 17 Jan., 1861, to the same:

When I was calculating yesterday about coming down, I was under an unaccountable impression that there was a day less in the week than there is. It seems to me that I cannot do better than come down at once and get my Number done at Gad's... I think the best thing I can do, will be to take possession of the best spare room, if you will have its fire lighted and will put my odds and ends there...

with envelope

791 A. L. s. "C. D." 1 p. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 31 Jan., 1861, to the same, asking that a bottle or two of whiskey be packed for him

- 792 A. L. s. "C. D." 3 pp. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 2nd Feby., 1861, to the same :

You are quite right in your final discovery and decision touching Boswell I will be at Hanover Terrace to receive you. A van will come to London Bridge—not a little cart—and will call here on its way up, to take in the things that are to come from here. Surely I put the key of the cupboard where Kate's silver is, in the cupboard itself. I seem to have a perfect remembrance thereof, and it is on my bunch. . . .

- 793 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp. 8vo, Lord Warden Hotel, Dover, 26 May, 1861, to the same :

I send enclosed cheque for £10-3-0. That is to say House £5, Waiters £4-10-0, Coal Bill £1-3-0. I hope I am still better. My face aches at times, but very little. I work well, walk well, eat and drink well, and sleep well. . . .

- 794 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 17th July, 1861, to the same :

I think you had better bring me up a white dress shirt, or I may run aground.

I will give you a pound when Duff Gordon marries Marguerite.

I am sick to death of the faintest reference to Chauncy's "party". . .

- 795 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 31 July, 1861, to the same :

I send this down, to ask you to give Frank to bring here to me—and to give him, tomorrow morning at breakfast, so that he may not forget it—my small umbrella with the ivory handle. . . .

Edmund Yates asks if he could come down on Friday in next week? Can he?

- 796 A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 19th Sept., 1861, to the same :

I thought it, on consideration, best to order 3 belts and 3 red flannel waistcoats. There is some mistake about the winter trousers. They are all at Gad's Hill. Nothing here but boots. . . .

- 797 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. sm. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 9th Oct., 1861, to the same, concerning the death of Mr. Henry Austin, his brother-in-law and friend

- 798 A. L. s. "C. D." 1½ pp. 8vo, Office of Household Words, July 29, 1857, to the same :

. . . asking her to send a collection of Cuttings, Pamphlets and Pictures of Newgate to Wilkie Collins, at 2 Harley Place, New Road.

- 799 A. L. s. "C. D." 1 p. 8vo, Household Words, 9th May, 1856, to the same :

. . . The party came off here, last night, with great success. Cold collation of pigeon pie, collared red partridge, ham, roast fowls, and lobster salads. One hot dish, consisting of a most immense heap of asparagus. Considerable quantities of Punch were disposed of, and Charley and I got home at ½ past 2.

He goes on to mention Stanfield, Forster and Maclise. Two holes—neatly repaired—affect two or three words.

- 800 A. L. s. "C. D." 4 pp. 8vo, Tavistock House, May 5th, 1856, to the same, describing a visit to the Dover Theatre, where a benefit performance for Mrs. Green was being given:

I made out Four and Ninepence in the House when I went in. We may have warmed up in the course of the evening to twelve shillings. . . . It was a most forlorn business, and I should have contributed a Sovereign to the Treasury if I had known her. I walked to Deal and back that day, and on the previous day walked over the Downs towards Canterbury. . . .

a long and very entertaining letter

- 801 A. L. s. "C. D." 2½ pp. 8vo, Household Words, 14th March, 1856, to the same:

Describing a visit to the Olympic Theatre with Webster, Lemon and Stanfield, and goes on to refer to the purchase of Gads' Hill. . . .

This day I have paid the purchase money for Gad's Hill Place. After drawing the cheque, I turned round to give it to Wills (£1,790), and said "Now isn't it an extraordinary thing—look at the day—Friday! I have been nearly drawing it half a dozen times when the lawyers have not been ready, and here it comes round upon a Friday as a matter of course. . . ."

- 802 A. L. s. "C. D." 2 pp. 8vo, H. W. Office, 11 March, 1856, to the same:

. . . Tell Catherine that I have the most prodigious, overwhelming, crushing, astonishing, blinding, deafening, pulverising, scarifying secret of which Forster is the hero, imaginable by the united efforts of the whole British population. It is a thing of that kind, that after I knew it (from himself) this morning, I lay down flat, as if an engine and Tender had fallen upon me. . . .

- 803 A. L. s. "C. D." 2½ pp. 8vo, Household Words, 8th Feb., 1856, to the same, mentioning "Little Dorrit":

. . . I have rescued Mark from a state of the deepest depression, and that the first No. of Little Dorrit has gone to 40,000, and the others are fast following. . . .

- 804 A. L. s. "C. D." 4 pp. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 22 July, 1854, to the same, concerning a book of Wilkie Collins:

Neither you nor Catherine did justice to Collin's book. I think it far away the cleverest Novel I have ever seen written by a new hand. It is much beyond Mrs. Gaskell, and is in some respects masterly. Valentine Blyth is as original and as well done as anything can be. The scene where he shews his pictures, is full of admirable humour. Nor do I recognize much imitation of myself. . . .

with a short Letter to the same, dated Feb., 1856 (2)

- 805 A. L. s. "C. D." 3½ pp. 8vo, Hotel de la Ville, Milan, 25 Oct., 1852, to the same:

Making great fun of the moustaches of Wilkie Collins, and Augustus Egg, and describing their adventures in Switzerland and Italy.

with envelope

- 806 A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Office of Household Words, 31st August, 1850, to the same :

I write these hasty &c. &c. to say Forster is not coming. Consequently if Fred is (which I suppose you know) he may have the Pump Room.

- 807 A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 16 August, 1859, to Wilkie Collins, mentioning "A Tale of Two Cities" :

I should have written to you this last week from Gad's Hill, but that I was tempted out on the Medway for two summer days (rowed 20 miles at a stretch, on one of them), and so slid back in the Tale of Two Cities, and have since been doggedly at it. . . . I have not the slightest doubt that The Woman in White is the name of names, and the very title of very titles. . . .

- 808 A. L. s. 1½ pp. 8vo, Gad's Hill Place, 8 Oct., 1866, to A. Roche, Esq. :

. . . Joan of Arc's story from the Childs' History of England—as you name that passage—is quite at your service for the purpose of your projected work, or you can make any other extract, of similar length, from one of my books except the "Sketches by Boz."

- 814 HARDY (Thomas) A. l. s. 2 pp. 8vo, West End Cottage, Swanage, Oct. 24th, 1875, to Mr. Macquoid:

... Give my kind regards to Mrs. Macquoid. I think her industry must be tremendous, to produce novels as she does, & throw in a large book of travels between each as a mere nothing. . . .

with others of R. D. Blackmore, M. O. W. Oliphant, Jean Ingelow, etc. (12)

- 815 HARDY (T.) Two Auto. Postcards (unsigned), 1908, to A. M. Broadley; with two photographs of "Oxwell Hall" of the Trumpet Major

- 816 SHAW (G. Bernard) Augustus does his bit, Rough Proof, unpublished, 8vo, wrappers (1917); with Auto. Note on blank by the author:

This is not really a "rough proof" of Augustus. It is a rehearsal copy. The play was performed on the 21st January 1917 and not published until 1919. Printed copies were needed for the preparation of the the performance; and this is one of them.

- 817 EVERETT (Edward), 1794-1865, American Orator and Diplomatist, A. L. s. 4 pp. 4to, to Horatio Greenough the American sculptor, on the colossal statue of Washington, Feb. 26, 1844—GODWIN (Wm.) A. L. s. to George Bartley, 1 p. 4to:

I beg to congratulate both the theatre and myself upon the success of the piece that night. I consider this as a real advantage to my poor widowed daughter (Lady Shelley) &c.

The Property of Miss Elsie Druce,

NIECE OF THE LATE J. W. CROSS, HUSBAND AND BIOGRAPHER OF
"GEORGE ELIOT."

- 825 ELIOT (George) A REMARKABLE COLLECTION OF UPWARDS OF SIX HUNDRED A. L. s., mostly addressed to Mr. and Mrs. Bray, and dating from 1842 to 1877, they are signed variously "Mary Ann," "Marian," "Pollian," "M. E. Lewes," etc.; a most intimate correspondence, containing numerous references to her literary labours and to the works of contemporary writers during thirty-five years; use was made of these letters in Mr. Cross's Biography, but none has been printed in extenso; the largest and most important collection of George Eliot's letters extant
- 826 ELIOT (G.) Auto. MS. 2 pp. 4to "Letters from a Town Mouse to a Country Mouse"; with an Extract from Giovanni Villani, 1 p. 4to (2)
- 827 ELIOT (G.) A Series of Seven A. L. s., to her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Evans of Winkworth, written from Griff, 1839-40:
I cannot give you a hopeful account of my spiritual state, for of late I have been much exposed to temptation from contact with wordly persons, and that traitor within the love of human praise has opened the door to too many compliances with what is likely to make me less hungry for heavenly blessings, by enabling me to derive a temporary enjoyment from what is merely earthly. I have great need of your prayers and I fear not that I shall be denied them. . . (7)
- 828 ELIOT (G.) Letters addressed to her from Benjamin Jowett, J. A. Froude, J. L. Stoddard, Sir James Paget, Chas. Bray, Sir R. F. Burton, James Hutton, etc., in two portfolios; with Two Albums of Newspaper Cuttings relating to George Eliot (4)

- 829 ROSSETTI (Dante Gabriel) A. L. s. 4 pp. 8vo, 16, Cheyne Walk, 18 Feb., 1870, to George Eliot, saying he is sending her two sonnets; with other Letters addressed to George Eliot from Oscar Browning, Anthony Trollope (thanking her for "Felix Holt"), G. F. Watts, B. Jowett, Earl Lytton, etc. (21)
- 830 STOWE (Harriet Beecher) Four fine A. L. s. 42 pp. 8vo, Hertford, 1869, to George Eliot, mentioning her books "Silas Marner," "Mill on the Floss" and "Adam Bede"; with Two A. L. s. from Mr. Stowe to George Eliot (5)
- 831 HARRISON (Frederic) A Series of Sixteen A. L. s., to George Eliot, concerning legal questions in "Felix Holt" and "Adam Bede" (16)
- 832 CARLYLE (Jane W.) A very fine A. L. s. 7 pp. 8vo, 5, Cheyne Row, 21st Jan., 1858, to George Eliot, thanking her for "Scenes of Clerical Life," Mrs. Carlyle desires to meet the author, whom she thinks to be a man
- 833 BANCROFT (George) A. L. s. 2 pp. 4to, American Embassy, Berlin, Oct., 1873, to George Eliot, saying that everyone in Berlin was reading "Middlemarch"
- 834 DICKENS (Charles) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Gad's Hill Place, 21 March, 1870, to G. H. Lewes:
On Sunday I hope to attend service at the Priory. I like the healthy look of the walking expedition and the longer rest abroad. May you thoroughly enjoy both. With kind regards to Mrs. Lewes...
- 835 CHAPMAN (John) A. L. s. 3 pp. 8vo, 8, King William St., 1857, to George Eliot, concerning remuneration for her contributions to the Westminster Review—FROUDE (J. A.) Two A. L. s. to George Eliot, desiring to know the identity of the author of "Scenes of Clerical Life"—BLACKWOOD (John) A. L. s. to George Eliot, mentioning her books—TOURGUENEFF (I. S.) A. L. s. (5)
- 836 GASKELL (Mrs. E. C.) A. L. s. 5 pp. 8vo, Whitby, Nov. 10th, n. y., to George Eliot, praising her "Scenes from Clerical Life" and "Adam Bede" folio. Verona, Printer of Augurellus, 18 Aug. 1491

 Only two books from this press are known.

- 1018 CARACCIOLUS (ROBERTUS) QUADRAGESIMALE de poenitentia, gothic letter, 248 leaves, ff. 1 and 16 blank, initials supplied in red, rubricated, stamped pigskin over wooden boards [Hain, *4420; Proctor, *7454; not in Pellechet or Winship] folio. Bâle, Berthold Ruppel [ff. 1-138] and Michael Wenssler [ff. 139-284], not after 1479

- 1019 VIOLA SANCTORUM, gothic letter, 92 ll., woodcut initial, first and last leaves slightly stained, vellum [Hain, *10867; Proctor, *7523]
folio. [Bâle, Bernhard Richel, c. 1474]

* * Either the first or the second edition, Hain, *10866 being perhaps earlier.

- 1020 Augustine (Saint) De Trinitate, gothic letter, 86 ll., 2 columns, a few worm-holes at beginning [G. W. 2926; Hain, 2037; Pellechet, 1541; Proctor, *7581]; bound with Augustine (Saint) De civitate Dei, gothic letter, 268 ll., 2 columns, text surrounded by commentary, woodcut on verso of title, worm-holes at end [G. W. 2887; Hain, 2064; Pellechet, 1559; Proctor, *7578] folio. Bâle, Johann Amberbach, 1489

- 1021 Augustine (Saint) Epistolae, second edition, roman letter, 328 ll., half calf gilt [G. W. 2906; Hain, 1969; Pellechet, 1483; Proctor, *7599]
folio. Bâle, Johann Amerbach, [14]23

- 1022 BROMYARD (JOHN DE) SUMMA PRAEDICANTIIUM, 2 vol. FIRST EDITION, gothic letter, vol. I, 362 ll., the first blank, wants ff. 56 and 364 (both blank), vol. II, 324 ll., first and last blank, 2 columns, rubricated, a few worm-holes at beginning and end of vol. I, original stamped pigskin over wooden boards [Hain, *3993; Pellechet, 3025; Proctor, 7615] folio. [Bâle, Johann Amerbach, not after 1484]

* * Both the B. M. Cat. Inc. and Pellechet give inaccurate collations of vol. I: the correct collation (using the B. M. notation) is: [-*, a-z, A-S] in eights, except , *, a and b, each 10 ll. and p and r, each 6 ll.; * 1, b 10 and s 8 blank.

- 1023 JEROME (SAINT) EPISTOLAE, 2 vol. in 1, gothic letter, 214 (the last blank) and 278 (the last blank) leaves, 2 columns, on the verso of the title of vol. II a small woodcut of the author kneeling before a crucifix, somewhat wormed at beginning and end, original wooden boards, pigskin back [Hain, *8559 ; Proctor, *7673] folio. Bâle, N. Kesler, 8 Aug. 1489
- 1024 Petrus Lombardus. Liber Sententiarum cum conclusionibus Henrici Gorichem ac titulis quaestionum S. Thomae, gothic letter, 279 ll., wants the last (blank), 2 columns, first initial painted in gold and colours, initials supplied in red, magenta or blue, somewhat wormed at beginning, half vellum [Hain, *10196 ; Proctor, 7676]
